QUEEN MARY KEEPING HER OWN SECRETS

Actual Rate in Bursts of Speed Has Not Been Revealed

SETS RECORD FOR FULL DAY'S RUN

ON BOARD R.M.S. QUEEN MARY, EN ROUTE TO NEW YORK, May 29 (CP).—In the night watches the Queen Mary is given to bursts of speed. How fast she actually travels in these spurts is one of her mysteries. The only information available is the day's run and the average she reels off.

BREAKS RECORD

The Queen Mary broke the French Normandie's record for a full twenty-five-hour-day run by traveling 747 miles up until noon, ship's time, today.

(Since the Queen Mary is traveling westward across the Atlantic, clocks were set back one hour during the long run, thereby making the day twenty-five hours long.)

The highest speed achieved thus far and the period for which it was maintained were not announced officially. Reports persisted, however, the top speed was more than 31.30 knots—the Normandie's best one-hour average.

RUNNING CLOSE

Cunard-White Star officials insist there is no intention of attempting to capture the blue ribbon of the Atlantic on this trip. Yet she is running the Normandie close. If the Queen Mary turns on her great reserve power she may yet turn the trick.

For a minute or so at 10:30 this morning the Queen Mary closed

THINK GUNMAN WILL RECOVER

Desperado Moved to Seattle —Wife Sought by Vancouver Police

SEATTLE, May 29 (CP).—A Canadian desperado, registered at hospital here as John Albert Arthur Fraser, of Vancouver, but identified from fingerprints by Canadian officials as Edward McMullen, gun pal of the slain Norman F. "Red" Ryan, still remained unconscious tonight, but physicians said he would probably recover.

Dr. Walter Kelton, attending surgeon, said "he's the acme of physical perfection, so far above the average man that he will probably recover, although he will never be well."

McMullen was brought here from Bellingham today, less than twenty-four hours after he sat down Immigration Inspector Charles Flachs, then sent a bullet through the left side of his head in an attempt to blast his way past Inspector Pike in the small investigation room at the Blaine customs house.

SEARCHING FOR WOMAN

VANCOUVER, May 29 (CP).—Police searched tonight for a blonde woman, believed to be the wife of Edward McMullen.

A woman believed to be Mary McMullen, fair-haired and about thirty years old, was reported to have sold an automobile to a second-hand car dealer a few hours before McMullen attempted to shoot his way through immigration channels into the United States.

Police said they believed the car sold yesterday was the one in which McMullen drove to Vancouver from Toronto after police sought him in connection with the slaying of Edwin Stonehouse in a service station holdup at Markham, Ont., last March 1.

"HIDEOUT" IN BURNABY

VANCOUVER, May 29 (CP).—Police announced tonight that they had uncovered an elaborate "hideout" in Burnaby which Edward McMullen, former companion-in-crime of Norman F. "Red" Ryan, had apparently intended as a permanent refuge here.

Whipped by a Light Westerly Wind, Fire Spread Through Twelve Horse Stalls on the East Side of the Willows Track Yesterday, Resulting in Damage Estimated at Over $800. Ten Animals Were Led to Safety.

Governments Will Spend $300,000 on Roads Into Mining Sections of B. C.

Ottawa Passes Appropriation of $1,500,000 for Nation-Wide Scheme

MINISTER OUTLINES VALUE OF INDUSTRY

OTTAWA, May 29 (CP).—A programme of road building into metal-mining areas of Ontario, Quebec, Saskatchewan, Manitoba and British Columbia will be undertaken in co-operation with the Provinces, Mines Minister T. A. Crerar told the House of Commons tonight. An appropriation of $1,500,000 to cover the Dominion cost was passed.

A rough estimate of the expenditure follows: Ontario and Quebec, $325,000 to $340,000 each; British Columbia, $300,000; Manitoba, $260,000, and Saskatchewan, $80,000 to $90,000.

The minister said a small sum would be spent in Alberta, perhaps at Waterways, the end of steel in the North.

TWO-TO-ONE RATIO

The money will be spent on a two-to-one ratio with the Provinces, the Dominion putting up $2 for every $1 spent by the Provinces. Preliminary negotiations have been in progress for some time and agreement reached with the Provinces on the ratio of expense.

POLICE PROBING WOMAN'S DEATH

Bruises on Throat of Mrs. Holger Sundstrom Give Rise to Foul Play Theory

VANCOUVER, May 29 (CP).—British Columbia Police tonight moved to investigate the death of Mrs. Holger Sundstrom, whose nearly nude body was found today on the beach at Texada Island, north of here, in the Strait of Georgia.

Bruises about the woman's throat, officers said, indicate she may have met with foul play. The body was brought here tonight and an autopsy will be performed tomorrow.

Mrs. Sundstrom left here Monday on the Ss. Cardena en route to Rock Bay on the northeastern coast of Vancouver Island. She disappeared from the vessel that night.

When found the body was clad only in a slip.

King Decides to Admit Women to Royal Victorian Order

LONDON, May 29 (CP).—Announcement was made tonight that the King has decided to alter the statutes of the Royal Victorian Order in order to permit the admission of women.

In addition to Knights Grand Cross and Knights Commanders, there are also to be Dames Grand Cross and Dames Commanders. Women are also to be admitted as commanders and members of the fourth and fifth classes. Ladies admitted to the two highest classes will be entitled to be styled dames.

Queen Victoria instituted the order in 1896 for persons rendering extraordinary or important or personal service to the Sovereign. The number of memberships is unlimited.

B.C. Is Starting Campaign to Get Lower Interest

Province Makes Demonstration by Foregoing Interest in Part on Land and Other Payments Not Yet to Hand—Move Called a "Lever"

BRITISH Columbia's Government has embarked on a campaign "to lower interest rates in Canada," and has taken the first step by reducing interest by 1½ per cent on many classes of deferred payments receivable by the Treasury on and after June 1, Premier Pattullo announced yesterday. The interest reduction, he said, would be used as a lever to force action in the Dominion.

Announcing a reduction of 6 per cent interest to 4½ per cent on deferred land and other payments after June 1, the Premier said this would apply to agreements under the Land Settlement Board, diking, irrigation, coal and all purchases of resources where deferred payments became due to the Province.

The cut would not apply on timber licences, income taxation, or other imposts where special penalties are statutory; but will affect loans under the Department of Industries and many miscellaneous agreements for sale. On better housing agreements, the Dominion will be asked to lower its interest rates, from 5 per cent as at present.

Go to Sea and Country for Whitsuntide

LONDON, May 29 (CP).—The great trek to sea and country began tonight as Britons prepared to celebrate Whitsuntide, the second public holiday of the year.

VOTE FOR TOLMIE

TO PROCLAIM ACT IF ACTION TAKEN

EDMONTON, May 29 (CP).—If Alberta's right to cut interest rates in half is challenged in the courts, Premier Aberhart said today he would proclaim the Refunding Act, giving it necessary authority for the step and blocking court proceedings.

The Social Credit Premier hoped, however, bondholders would not fight the reduction in public debt interest rates, and that the signing of an order-in-council would be all that was necessary to make the cut effective.

The order-in-council will be signed June 1 and the lower rates will be effective on that date.

B.C. HOLDERS COUNT COST

Provincial and Civic Treasuries Caught With Alberta Securities

Just how arbitrary reduction on interest rates on Alberta bond holdings works out for the taxpayers of British Columbia was beginning to be apparent yesterday, as municipalities and governmental agencies added up their losses on a yearly basis.

The British Columbia Government, it was seen, was in a favored position, having disposed of more than half of its Alberta bonds in the last two years, at a profit. From holdings of more than $700,000 in direct obligations of Alberta, British Columbia had cut its list to $330,000, on which annual interest charges, if paid at their face value, would approximate $16,000. In only half of the interest rate is paid, however, the Province would stand to lose $8,000 per annum.

CITIES SUFFER

Victoria City, with $469,000 in Alberta securities, carried at an average interest yield of between 4.75 and 5 per cent, may lose approximately $11,000 a year, it was reiterated at the City Hall.

Vancouver, Mainland advices said, would suffer to the extent of some $20,000 by the action of Alberta in scaling down its interest obligations as recently announced.

Scores of smaller towns and municipalities in British Columbia also hold Alberta securities in their portfolios, the loss in each case tracing back to the taxpayers of those areas.

It was impossible to estimate what the public might lose in direct holdings of the securities of the neighboring province. This involuntary contribution to the finances of another province did not bring any noticeable cheers from those affected, among whom British Columbia ratepayers are heavily represented.

ARMED REBELS START REVOLT

Reported Insurgents Have Already Defeated Troops Of Paraguay

BUENOS AIRES, May 29 (AP).—Unconfirmed reports reaching here late today said revolutionaries had risen in arms against the Paraguayan Government of President Rafael Franco and were marching toward Asuncion, the capital.

These accounts said groups of rebels already had defeated troops of President Franco, who became president of Paraguay after an army revolt overthrew the regime of President Eusebio Ayala in February.

A dispatch from Formosa, Argentina, to the newspaper Noticias Graficas said a political crisis had developed and that a revolt was expected to develop momentarily if it had not already broken out.

This account stated the leaders of the reported opposition to President Franco were civilian and military friends of General Jose Felix Estigarribia, Paraguay's successful commander in the three-year Chaco war with Bolivia, who had been detained by the Franco Government.

STABBED IN THE BACK

VANCOUVER, May 29 (CP).—Walter Sams, forty-seven-year-old Vancouver man, was held by police tonight on a charge of wounding, while Arthur Wadsworth, fifty-four, lay in a hospital cot with a stab wound in his back. His condition was reported as fair.

WRECKING OF RAILWAY BRIDGE MAY ADD TO CHINESE TROUBLES

Death of Japanese Officer Another Dangerous Incident

TIENTSIN, China, May 29 (AP).—The Chuanliangchen Bridge on the Peiping-Liaoning Railroad between Tangku and Tientsin was blown up tonight, and neutral sources expressed the belief that the perpetrators intended to wreck trains carrying newly-arrived Japanese reinforcements to this region. Officials expressed grave fears that the incident might further disturb troubled Sino-Japanese relations.

A trainload of troops scheduled to come here from Tangku did not arrive and train service between Tientsin and Shanhaikwan was suspended.

NARROWLY ESCAPES

A Japanese military train, bringing infantry and reinforcements to Tientsin narrowly escaped being destroyed when explosives were set off under the rails. Apart from injury to several Japanese army horses, there were no casualties.

The train proceeded under its own power to the Tientsin railway station. Japanese military authorities began an investigation, which disclosed that the explosives had been elaborately wired so as to go off automatically when the train passed over.

MYSTERIOUS DEATH

SHANGHAI, May 29 (AP).—Chinese expressed fears tonight that the mysterious death of a Japanese officer outside a cabaret in Peiping might be capitalized for a Japanese "incident" in the grave North China situation.

The officer, attached to the Manchukuo army, was found lifeless near the rear of the recently-opened Japanese cabaret on Tuesday night.

Three Owners Find Their Houses Built On Wrong Property

KAMLOOPS, May 29 (CP).—Three residents of this city who built their houses three years ago are now contemplating moving, and it's not because they don't like the location, but because of mistaken identity. They found out today that their houses were built on someone else's property.

Outlook Is Improved At Terrace

TERRACE, B.C., May 29 (CP).—A steady demand for mill products, with some mills booked with orders for months ahead, has greatly lessened the unemployment problem in this district.

Hewn ties and cedar poles are also in demand and the export of balsam and cottonwood has increased.

Building activities have improved. Several dwelling houses are being constructed and many property-owners are enlarging and improving their buildings.

RISKS LIFE TO AID TWO DOGS

Canines Trapped on Narrow Ledge of Rock Over Fraser River

LYTTON, May 29 (CP).—Two dogs, a little black spaniel and its larger, brown companion, huddled tonight on their narrow ledge on the face of Cisco Canyon above the rushing Fraser River, saved from probable starvation by the kindness of a man who couldn't see them starve and risked his own life to bring them food.

The man, name unknown, a chef in Cisco Lodge across the river, noticed the dogs' plight. Wrapping up a package of food, he crossed the railway bridge and climbed perilously along the precipice to a point where he could throw them the food. Then he himself became stranded, unable to move on the ledge.

ASSISTED TO SAFETY

A Canadian Pacific Railway watchman noticed the plight of the man and, with the aid of a long piece of wire, assisted him to safety from the crumbling face of the cliff.

The dogs, whom no one seems to recognize or know how they became imprisoned on the ledge, are situated about 200 feet down the side of the cliff, a few feet above the surface of the river. Efforts to reach them by boat via the swift-running river, so far have been unavailing.

No one knows how long they've been there and no one knows how long it will be before they can be rescued.

FOURTEEN KILLED IN BATTLE IN SPAIN

ALBACETE, Spain, May 29 (AP).—Fourteen persons, including one civil guard, were reported killed today and more than sixty wounded in a pitched battle between civil guards and peasants in a mountainous region near the town of Yeste.

NAVY SHOWS FOR FUEHRER

Germany's New Fleet Provides Her Greatest Sea Pageant Since Jutland

KIEL, Germany, May 29 (AP).—Chancellor Hitler reviewed the reborn German Navy today in a sea spectacle unrivaled here since manoeuvres preliminary to the Battle of Jutland.

Attired in the simple brown uniform which he created for his Nazi party, the Fuehrer watched the fleet of more than a hundred units from a vantage point twenty miles out in Kiel Bay.

BATTLESHIPS LEAD

Three "vestpocket" battleships led the parade. Nineteen submarines, the first since the war, followed. Cruisers, destroyers and speedboats came next.

Hitler was aboard his private dispatch ship Grille. General Werner von Blomberg, Minister of Defence, and other Nazi leaders were with him.

An excursion boat alongside the Grille contained all the Cabinet ministers except General Goering, Minister of Air. Thirty other boats, loaded with spectators, witnessed the display.

FIRST UNDER TREATY

The submarines and speedboats were new. They were the first units constructed under the Anglo-German Treaty which superseded the Versailles Treaty limitations, which restricted the German Navy to 100,000 tons.

The navy, under the new treaty, is to reach 420,595 tons, or about 35 per cent of the British fleet. The new units shown today provide the nucleus.

Hitler was aboard the battleship Deutschland as the rattle and roar of the fleet guns concentrated on the battered Zaeringer. The "attacker" invaded the bay from the North Sea, operated by wireless.

Argentina Calls League Meeting

GENEVA, May 29 (CP-Havas).—Argentina today called for a special meeting of the League of Nations assembly, June 16, to consider the problems of sanctions, Italy's annexation of Ethiopia, and reform the League covenant.

The Buenos Aires Government has already refused recognition of Italian annexation.

Vancouver Island Development Best Hope for Victoria

People Tired of Political Manoeuvres and Want Governments to Get On With Business of the Country, Says Hon. Dr. S. F. Tolmie

"WE can do a lot for this country if we will only help ourselves, not out of the pockets of other people, but by an intelligent use of those assets which have been bestowed on us in bounteous measure. Self-help, I am convinced, is the way out for governments and for people. We have got the goods, conditions are improving, and we have only to apply ourselves to the task of making the best use of these opportunities," Hon. Dr. S. F. Tolmie declared before a public rally under the auspices of Oak Bay Conservatives last evening.

Speaking as Conservative candidate in the by-election, Dr. Tolmie dealt mainly with the development of Victoria and its environs, as a regional area of great future possibilities within the limits of Vancouver Island. He was supported on the platform by Gordon A. Cameron and R. D. Harvey, at a well attended meeting, with Brigadier J. Sutherland Brown in the chair. Making the third address of his campaign, Dr. Tolmie received a spirited welcome.

ISLAND OPPORTUNITIES

He traced the position of Victoria at the southern end of Vancouver Island, contiguous to farm areas of great productivity, and as a port at the crossroads of a Pacific Ocean commerce of growing importance. Commercially and from a tourist

FIRE DESTROYS HORSE STABLES

Ten Animals Are Led to Safety From Blazing Stalls at Willows

Fire destroyed twelve horse stalls and considerable equipment at the Willows track yesterday afternoon, resulting in a loss estimated at more than $800. Ten horses were led to safety from the flaming stables on the east side of the track.

Believed to have broken out at 2 o'clock in one of the stalls used as sleeping quarters by William Chippin and Elwood Knapp, and owned by Archibald Sturrock, the fire spread rapidly to the stables. Firemen extinguished the blaze in forty-five minutes.

Nicholas Van der Vliet, Uplands, who was one of the first to spread the alarm, and D. B. Carley, riding instructor, saved four of Mr. Sturrock's horses, three owned by J. McRae, two by Mrs. G. Briggs and one by G. Edgelow.

GIVES LIFE IN VAIN

The only fatality was a mother cat which ran into the flames in an attempt to save her small kitten, which was afterwards rescued by firemen.

A wind carried sparks and flaming tarpaper for a considerable distance and for a time fear was held that the flames would spread to other buildings.

SELASSIE GIVEN WARM WELCOME

Emperor of Ethiopia Arrives at Gibraltar—To Go On to England on Sunday

GIBRALTAR, May 29 (AP).—The fugitive Emperor of Ethiopia, Haile Selassie, arrived here today and was greeted with a burst of applause.

The little Negus plainly was unprepared for the ripple which marked his arrival at the Rock Hotel, but only momentarily. He recovered his poise, removed his high silk hat and bowed and smiled.

Later he appeared on the balcony and again applause greeted him. He plans to continue to England, Sunday, as a private citizen, thereby averting possible embarrassments of official England.

B.C. Native Sons and Daughters Support New Deal for Island

Chief Factor H. B. Sargison Authorized to Name Committee—B. A. McKelvie, Frank Higgins, K.C., and Mrs. H. L. Beckwith Speak

MEMBERS of the Native Sons of British Columbia, Post No. 1, and Native Daughters of British Columbia, Post No. 3, at a joint meeting in the K.P. Hall last night, entered into the growing campaign for a new deal for Vancouver Island.

Chief Factor H. B. Sargison was, by resolution, authorized to name a committee of five to lead in the fight for the Island. The committee will be empowered to add to its numbers.

This action was taken after B. A. McKelvie gave a lengthy and comprehensive address, in which he argued that the Island, since its annexation with the Mainland in November of 1866, had been grossly discriminated against, chiefly as the result of the patronage system.

FRANK HIGGINS, K.C.

Frank Higgins, K.C., told of early fights by the Island for better consideration by the Provincial Legislature and of the few concessions granted. He asked why the government could not be run on a business basis. The campaign now under way for a better deal, Mr. Higgins explained, was for the purpose of "unionizing the Island into one big union," which he thought could be done with splendid results.

Mrs. H. Beckwith, past grand factor of the Native Daughters, appealed to the women to support the movement, and told how they could help the campaign in small, but practical ways.

The history of Vancouver Island, from the date of its union with British Columbia in 1866, was reviewed by Mr. McKelvie. He instanced the growing concentration of political power on the Mainland with coincident discrimination against Vancouver Island.

MAINLAND FAVORED

Mr. McKelvie pointed out that under a political party system in a provincial field where powers of legislation was largely administrative, patronage dominated. Under such concentration, campaign committee and patronage organization centred in Vancouver largely dictated public expenditures.

History of the Province in the past thirty years showed, he said, that despite the larger per capita of revenue on Vancouver Island, development was concentrated on the Mainland; the capital wealth of the Island had been used for the purpose of building up the Mainland, and with the huge public debt of the Province at the present time little hope could be entertained for the works necessary for the opening up of the Island and the return of prosperity.

His personal opinion, he said, was that "it is a case of sink or swim" as far as Vancouver Island was concerned.

URGES ACTION

Mr. Higgins, by anecdote and illustration, showed how discrimination in favor of the Mainland had developed since the inception of the city of Vancouver.

He paid tribute to the endeavors of Hon. William Smithe and Hon. Theodore Davie to develop the Island, and spoke of the manner in which the political forces of the Mainland had sought to frustrate their endeavors.

The speaker graphically portrayed the need for unity of thought, action and enterprise on Vancouver Island with a view to compelling a complete new deal in matters of Government expenditure. He urged native sons and native daughters, not only of the organizations, but all to take leadership in arousing all residents of the Island to the necessity for common action to attain justice and equity and bring a new and greater prosperity.

Mrs. Beckwith pleaded for a new spirit of neighborliness amongst the people resident on the Island. She argued that through co-operative endeavor a great deal could be done towards the common interests of all.

QUEEN MARY KEEPS HER OWN SECRETS

ship. Acting under the impulse of the central control, the watertight doors slid smoothly into place, and as smoothly opened again. At the same moment the pressure of all fire apparatus was tested from the bridge. It was one of those daily precautions for safety of which the average passenger is unaware.

TESTING LIFEBOATS

On the sun deck the crew was testing the great motor lifeboats, each of which accommodates more passengers than the total complement of the first Cunard steamship, the Britannia.

The Queen Mary's second day on the Atlantic was one of fair seas and unclouded skies. Little difficulties due to the overwhelming demands of the maiden voyage are smoothing out. The radio is catching up with long delays.

Never was a ship so deluged with wireless greetings. Never had a ship so many messages to send. Even the Queen Mary's most modern equipment failed to meet the demands.

ANOTHER RECORD

The Queen Mary has already broken the record for the number of telephone calls from a ship at sea. On her first day out fifty calls were put through from passengers' cabins to various parts of the world. An additional 130 since have been either concluded or are waiting.

There were two perfect conversations today with South Africa. One woman passenger had a nine-minute talk, direct from her cabin, with a friend in Vienna.

J. KING GORDON FILES PAPERS

C.C.F. Candidate Places Nomination in Hands of Returning Officer

Nomination papers, on behalf of Professor J. King Gordon, C.C.F. candidate in the Victoria Federal by-election, were filed with Returning Officer Sydney Child at 11 o'clock yesterday mroning.

The papers, bearing the name of the candidate, "John King Gordon, 119 Moss Street, lecturer in Christian ethics," were signed by twenty-six names, and Harry A. Bowden, accountant, was named as the candidate's official agent.

SIGNED PAPER

Gen. Fang Jin Wu Declares Japan Preparing for Agressive Warfare

PLEADS FOR NATIONS TO PRESERVE PEACE

"The greatest menace to world peace lies in the East because Japan, through Premier Tanaka's memorial, is harboring a burning ambition to expand into a superempire. The programme is first to occupy Manchuria and Mongolia, and at the same time fortify herself for the battle with Russia and possibly the United States, who would not permit Japan to overrun Asia without armed resistance."

That was how General Fang Jin Wu summed up the militaristic setup in the Near East, at a public meeting held here last night in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium under the auspices of the League Against War and Fascism, with J. R. Scoby, as chairman.

SEEKS RESOURCES

By Japan's occupation of Manchuria and Mongolia, the General remarked, she would have ample natural resources, such as iron, coal, timber and agricultural products to aid in the conquering of the rest of China. "These statements may seem startling, but they come from an outstanding military leader, Premier Tanaka, whose plans are the plans of the Japanese Military Expansionist group, which is obviously the real power in Japan. Because of this we are fast preparing to meet eventualities and our self-preservation," the General said.

The civilians of the world, General Fang Jin Wu continued, can help to prevent the success of the plan by denouncing any war of aggression, and through their governments strengthen and support the League to apply sanctions against all aggressors.

"Under the Japanese expansion plans, if successful in Manchuria and Mongolia, the nation would be in possession of vast resources, which, when manufactured, could be used to flood the world with low-grade goods at a tremendously low price, thus putting factories out of business and cause a recurrence of widespread unemployment," General Fang declared.

APPEALS TO CIVILIAN

The General reviewed the situation from an economic standpoint and said he visioned Japan using the resources for the manufacture of war materials for sale to other nations, thus adding impetus to the "mad race of nations towards war." "Let the civilians of the world," he said, "save themselves from another and greater economic strangulation within their own nations, as well as other nations. Let us demand orderly international trade instead of unregulated, unfair and unfettered competition and economic penetration."

Concerning war and civilization, the General said: "War depends upon the human will, upon what goes on inside the human head, upon how to decide to order their society and to arrange their relationship with others. Let us change the will for war to one of good will. Shall we cure the disease of war by conscious consent, or shall we consent to a war of exhaustion until on conquers all? Or shall we be united under one great common authority, such as the League? That, I think, would bring about collective security."

REFUSE TO WORK

In concluding his remarks the General stated that all should refuse to work on armaments, refuse to help in the transport of war materials and "walk away from the war factories." There should, he said, be a complete revision of treaties. "Let all nations lay their cards on the table and begin again to prevent the master militarism from dragging the world into another great conflict."

The General delivered a portion of his address in English, but the most of it was in the Chinese language, which was very ably translated and interpreted to the audience by Joseph Hope. Between 400 and 500 persons attended the meeting, and the General was cheered at the conclusion.

PROPOSES CRUSADE

T. Guy Sheppard was the only other speaker on the programme. Mr. Sheppard, in his usual forceful way, spoke of the need for a crusade for a protest against war. He advocated a "League animated by the motive for fellowship and brotherhood, beauty and culture." He mentioned the Italian invasion of Ethiopia and the lack of protest on the part of the civilized world against the treatment of the Ethiopian soldiers at the hands of the Italians.

Mr. Sheppard proposed a league of nations with representatives elected by the people and not by governments. He also made a strong plea for a united effort to prevent war and Fascism, and gave a graphic account of the effects of the last great war and the position of the soldier, who, he said, "had been broken on the wheels of war and thrown onto the scrap heap to join the rest of his comrades as forgotten men."

MOVIE WORK IS HERE TO STAY

R. N. Hincks Asks Real Estate Board to Assist Industry

R. N. Hincks, a veteran in the theatrical business in Victoria, is enthusiastic over the possibilities of future development of the movie picture enterprise in the city. Addressing members of the Real Estate Board yesterday, Mr. Hincks advised Victorians to lend every assistance and encouragement to Kenneth Bishop, who was making a real success and who had ahead of him greater things for the industry.

The industry had now become established here. There were the facilities present for the making of full-length films, and every honest proposition on a sound basis should receive encouragement to come in and utilize the equipment that existed, he declared.

Mr. Hincks called upon the businessmen of the city to aid in every way possible any legitimate move for the assisting of any arrangements which would make for the furthering of the industry.

CUSTOMS CHANGES

In this connection, he expressed the hope that certain customs regulations that militated at present in connection with the bringing in of needed equipment should be amended and the businessmen should lend aid in this direction.

Tracing the early history of the movie, Mr. Hincks referred to the overwhelming credulity with regard to strangers, which was characteristic of Victoria, and told how this had worked out in some instances in the early history of the efforts for establishing the movie industry here.

The untimely death of J. S. H. Matson had been the greatest loss to the city with respect to the movie industry. He was the one man who could have put through the scheme and who could not be deceived. He had, at the time of his death, things well in hand for the establishment of the industry here, Mr. Hincks stated.

The work that was being done by Kenneth Bishop was worthy of the greatest praise, he said.

There had been four full-length pictures produced here from November to April. Tens of thousands of dollars were represented in the undertaking and the circulation of money had been of great benefit to many in the city.

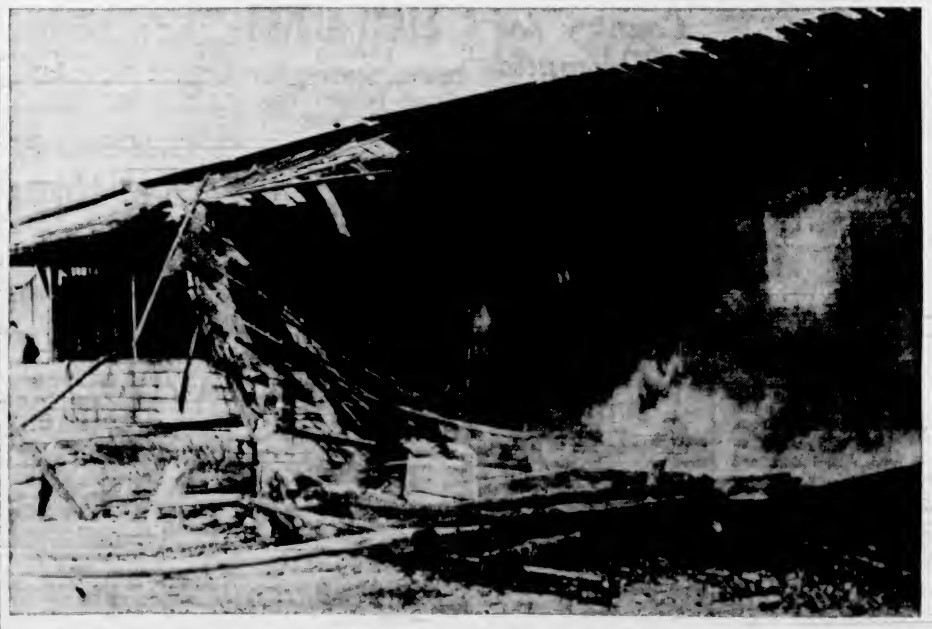

PRACTICAL SIDE

E. C. Clarkson, who is connected with the practical side of the production, spoke briefly, describing just what was necessary in producing the pictures. The many processes through which the picture passed before it was ready to be put on the screen were described by the speaker.

Replying to questions by members of the board, Mr. Hincks said that the pictures sent to Great Britain were now being shown and were taking exceedingly well. The picture "Stop, Look, and Love," was reported to be very much in favor. There was room for all the pictures that could be produced here under the British quota.

The speakers were thanked for their information by Frank Burton, newly-elected president of the board.

Where Ten Horses Were Taken to Safety

Hangar Fire Loss Placed At $300,000

KANSAS CITY, May 29 (AP).—Fire swept the United States army hangar at the Kansas City airport early tonight, causing a loss estimated at $300,000.

Five airplanes were destroyed, along with a score of parachutes, and a large supply of parts and equipment.

Work of firemen was made hazardous by exploding bullets. Several cases of .45 automatic ammunition were stored in the structure.

No more EARLY MORNING Grouches!

"Thanks to Eno's 'Fruit Salt' for dispelling morning grouches and blues from our home. A glass of Eno first thing every morning was just what my husband and I needed to give us some pep and sparkle instead of half-awake irritability caused by a sluggish and lazy digestive system. Eno is now an established member of our household."

H. B. Witter Head of Y.M.C.A. for Sixth Term in Succession

Is Unanimously Re-Elected at Annual Meeting—R. W. Mayhew, Dr. A. M. Menzies and Dr. Allon Peebles New Directors—Optimistic Reports

H. B. WITTER was unanimously re-elected president of Victoria Y.M.C.A. during the annual meeting last evening. Directors chosen to serve again for three years were J. Bennell, J. O. Cameron, Dr. T. W. A. Gray and W. A. Jameson. Mr. Cameron was named treasurer.

R. W. Mayhew and Dr. A. M. Mcnzies, new members of the board of directors, will serve for three years. Dr. Allon Peebles was chosen to fill a one-year term.

Mr. Witter has been connected with the Y.M.C.A. for twenty years, and has just completed his fifth term as president.

In presenting the financial report, J. V. Johnson explained income for the period from May 1, 1935, to April 30, 1936, was $22,197. Expenses were $22,587, which left a deficit of $390. A higher income was shown by practically every department, but $970 in increased operating expenses of Glinz Lake Camp, the office and dormitories partly accounted for the small deficit, he said.

DEFICIT LOWERED

Assets totaled $82,702.40, against which were liabilities of $9,472.45 and a depreciation allowance of $1,841.53, leaving the net worth at $71,388.42. The operating deficit for the year, budgeted at $6,071, was $5,407. The sum of $6,000 had been pledged in the financial campaign, but $3,000 would be required to clear off accrued liabilities. The financial condition was as good as could be expected, administration was sane and economical, and the building was in good general condition, Mr. Johnson declared.

Tabloid reports were presented on badminton by Alfred Slocomb; senior leader corps, J. Allison; swimming clubs, Chris McRae, and junior leader corps, Robert Anderton. John Baxter stated 194 sessions of track and field groups showed a total attendance of 1,538. He said many members of the groups were a credit to British Columbia, and congratulated Archie McKinnon, physical director, for his able leadership. E. Harrison reported an attendance increase from 23,876 to 30,461 in 1,898 sessions of forty-six groups in the physical department.

E. G. Rowebottom stated that the annual circus made a net profit of $737.17. He presented prizes to twenty-two boys who participated in a ticket sales campaign.

PAYS TRIBUTE

In his boys' division and camp report, W. T. Straith paid tribute to the work of F. Vivian Shoemaker, boys' secretary. He said the 320-acre camp was attended by sixty-nine boys last year.

Short statements were read on the Hi-Y Club by Lorne McGregor; Quad Club, Hugh Linnell; Camera and Stamp Clubs, M. A. Pickering; Speakers' Club, G. Sharpe; Victoria Toastmasters' Club, W. S. Fraser; Tuesday public speaking class, George Gordon; Friday class, J. C. Thow, and ladies' class, Miss O. R. Walsh. Dr. Menzies, in touching on educational social activities, declared that interest in the various clubs and classes was growing enormously.

Dealing with ladies' auxiliary activities, Mrs. Donald McAdie told how a successful luncheon, tea and shower had assisted in raising $1,028.31. The money had been used to renovate billiard tables, rebuild the office, provide linen and construct a lecture hall in the lobby. A balance of $117.15 remained, she said.

MAINTENANCE WORK

Mr. Bennell described work done to keep the building in good shape with the limited sum provided. He hoped to be able to carry out considerable kalsomining and painting in July and August. Destitute men had been provided with 1,200 beds during the year. Without able assistance of the Ladies' Auxiliary, his department would be unable to function, Mr. Bennell stated.

Membership stood at 465, the second highest in twenty-five years, E. G. Rowebottom reported. He offered hearty thanks to the membership committee. Warren W. Martin, J. A. Heritage, Rev. G. A. Reynolds, Norval Peterson, Samuel Hill, F. Partington, J. V. Johnson, W. C. Hudson, G. G. Fraser, and to Frank Paulding, general secretary.

Referring to religious activities, Rev. G. A. Reynolds told of the place the Y.M.C.A. occupied in the community in building up Christian personality. During the year the staff dealt with 387 interviews on religious and moral matters. Sunday evening song services were attended by 1,000 young people, he stated.

SILENT TRIBUTE

At the suggestion of Mr. Straith, silent tribute was paid to the memory of the late B. C. Nicholas. Mr. Straith suggested letters of sympathy be sent to Mr. Nicholas' relatives.

A. Walker sang a solo and Harvey Dobson played a violin selection. They were accompanied by Mr. Shoemaker at the piano.

T. M. Elliott, who spent twenty years in China as a Y.M.C.A. secretary, congratulated Mr. Witter and the directors for their active organization. He declared their faith in the future of the boys under their care should spur them on to even greater efforts.

Exhibiting photographs of famous Chinese, and illustrating his remarks with maps, Mr. Elliott described some of his work in the Orient. He said many prominent Oriental leaders were Christians. China, he declared, was not in a state of chaos as believed by many North American newspaper readers. Radio stations, new roads, railways, schools and air lines were being established in every direction.

URGES CO-OPERATION

There was no organization that reached out like the Y.M.C.A. to fifty-six countries, Mr. Elliott asserted. He concluded by stating that Canada and the United States must co-operate with other countries, for it was time to march along, not to hold back.

Mr. Witter expressed thanks to Mr. Elliott, the Y.M.C.A. staff, entertainers, and the Ladies' Auxiliary. Singing of the "Doxology" and refreshments brought the annual meeting to a close.

Rev. E. W. Horton led a short devotional service at the commencement.

Lived Here Forty Years

THE LATE R. B. BERKS

Funeral services were conducted yesterday afternoon for Robert Bartlett Berks, of Scott Apartments, Douglas Street, who passed away in the Jubilee Hospital on May 26. Many sorrowing friends attended the rites, which were conducted by Rev. Canon Chadwick, during which one hymn, "Abide With Me," was sung. Beautiful floral tributes were received. The pallbearers were C. J. Vey, John H. Wark, D. F. Macdonald, H. Holmes, F. Holmes and T. Forbes. Interment was made in the family plot in Ross Bay Cemetery. Mr. Berks came to Victoria from London, England, nearly forty years ago, and immediately was employed with J. Piercy & Company. He was constantly associated with the dry goods business until he retired in 1927. He was a gifted musician and was a graduate of the Royal Academy of Music, London.

CARIBOO GOLD RUSH PERIOD IS RECALLED

ANNUAL GATHERING IS GREAT SUCCESS

A fine descriptive address of the early days of the Cariboo was given by Miss Lottie M. Bowron, a pioneer of Barkerville, before a gathering of some 150 members of the Saanich Pioneer Association at its annual banquet held in the Saanichton Agricultural Hall last night. Councillor L. C. Hagan presided.

Reminiscenes of the early days of this province were recounted, and a splendid programme of entertainment was enjoyed. The evening was brought to a close with a dance held by the Saanich Junior Pioneer Association.

Miss Bowron, who spent a number of years in the Cariboo in her girlhood days, gave some reminiscenes of the early days in that district. At the outset she congratulated the Saanich Pioneer Association on its good work. She expressed her gratitude for the way in which the organization was preserving the records of the past and cherishing the names of the pioneers.

With so many of Saanich's pioneers also one-time residents of Cariboo, Miss Bowron expressed the hope that a record would be compiled of the history of those men and women whose lives were so closely linked with the Cariboo and Saanich early days.

NAMES PIONEERS

The speaker read the names of some of these pioneers, and gave brief outlines of their lives. Some of the pioneers were the father of Councillor Hagan; William Turgoose, Captain Butler, Thomas Mitchell, and others. No mention of Saanich would be complete without the name of Alex Thomson, who was the first white child to be born in Saanich.

The speaker's own father was a member of that courageous band of adventurers who made the overland journey to the Cariboo in 1862 from Winnipeg. There were 130 men, one woman and two children in the party, Miss Bowron said. It took them three and a half months to make the journey.

Miss Bowron read a few passages from the diary of Dr. Cheadles to give the audience the atmosphere of the Cariboo in the early days, and during the reading many Saanich names were mentioned.

GIVES IMPRESSIONS

The speaker gave her impression of Barkerville, where she was born. She urged her hearers to visit the Cariboo instead of touring South. She concluded her address by telling many amusing stories of miners and residents of Barkerville. She also paid a tribute to the pioneer women, who, she felt, were the most courageous.

Miss Bowron was presented with a beautiful bouquet at the close of her talk, after which the guests drank a toast to Miss Bowron and Saanich and Cariboo pioneers.

Reeve William Crouch paid tribute to the pioneers, who, after coming out of the Cariboo, took up pioneering in Saanich. The men living today who had been pioneers had seen a remarkable progress. As a pioneer of Manitoba, the reeve reviewed the progress that had been made in his time. He looked to the future with a great deal of confidence, being assured that the progress during the next generation would be even more remarkable.

MEMBER SPEAKS

N. W. Whittaker, M.P.P. for Saanich, said Miss Bowron's stories made him realize what wonderful developments had taken place since the early Cariboo gold-rush days. It made one feel that the generation of today owed a great debt of gratitude to those early pioneers.

He thanked the chairman for his expression of appreciation for the road work that had been carried out in his constituency. He said at present he did not know just what appropriation would be made this year, but expected to be able to make an announcement some time next week.

Alex McDonald, M.P.P. for the Islands, drew attention to the similarity in the development of Saanich and the Cariboo. Both owed their advancement to sturdy pioneers.

"We have a wonderful heritage, but when thinking of that heritage we must not forget the names of those who passed it on to us," he concluded.

Artists who contributed to a programme of music and dances were: Miss Sheila Conway, soprano; Don Brake, baritone, Miss Margaret Pringle, pianist; Miss Jean Ray; Miss Flossie Ray and Miss Mary Hughes. Community singing also was enjoyed.

Engineer Killed When Steam Pipe Burst on Engine

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29 (AP).—The bursting of a steam pipe in the second engine on the Western Pacific's No. 1, the westbound Pacific Limited, led today to death of the engineer and injury to the fireman. The accident went undiscovered as the eight-car train, with half a hundred passengers aboard, roared on nearly thirty miles toward Sacramento.

The lead engine, however, had the train under control all the time, Western Pacific officers here said.

QUEEN MARY IN LONDON SQUARE

Model of Vessel Shown in David Spencer Limited Window Today

How big would the Queen Mary look if set in the heart of London?

Very appropriately, while the majestic vessel is still the theme of over-the-breakfast-coffee discussion in Victoria, a replica of the world's youngest marine giantess as she would appear if moored in Trafalgar Square, London, has been placed on display in the Douglas and View Street window of David Spencer, Ltd., Store.

THE MODEL

The model, worked out in plaster and wood, measures about five feet by eighteen inches, and is seen slightly foreshortened, as if seen from a low airplane. One of the best standards of comparison, as affecting her height is the Nelson monument, 145 feet high, which rises alongside. The juxtaposition shows that passengers could reach out from the upper deck and touch the old naval hero's hand. Lying with her bows down Whitehall and her stern up St. Martin's Lane, the vessel's 'midships magnificently dominates the National Gallery on the one side. St. Martin-in-the-Fields (the "Admiralty church") on the other, while the handsome triple Archway of the Admiralty, off her bows, is toy-like by comparison. The many details of Morley's Hotel, Northumberland Avenue, Charing Cross Station, the Strand, Pall Mall, show up relatively belittled beside this newest of ocean leviathans.

INTERESTING DISPLAYS

The remainder of the window is appropriately fitted out with travel paraphernalia, trunks, rugs, etc. In the flanking windows, right and left, are other interesting displays inspired by the interest in the Queen Mary, one window containing "beautyrest" mattresses, by Simmons, as chosen by the Cunard Line's experts when selecting the furnishings for the great vessel that is supposed to spell the last word in luxury and comfort, and the other containing generous sample lengths of the draperies used in the principal lounges, dining-saloons and other rooms of the ship. These last come from three of England's principal textile factories.

BAND CONCERT IS ANNOUNCED

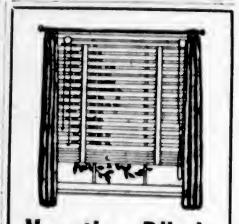

Miss Sheila Conway Will Be Vocal Soloist at Beacon Hill on Sunday

As an outstanding attraction for the concert tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at Beacon Hill Park, the Canadian Legion Band is happy to present as its guest soloist, Miss Sheila Conway, soprano.

Miss Conway, besides having the natural gift of voice, has been under the guidance of Madame Eva Baird for the past few years, and has become one of the finest lyric sopranos on the Island. At the recent Victoria Musical Festival, Miss Conway won highest honors in the leader class, and has also won similar honors in many past festivals.

Tomorrow afternoon's performance is Miss Conway's first appearance with any band, and is also the first band concert where a vocal soloist has been featured. It is the hope of the Canadian Legion Band to also feature Miss Conway's soprano voice at its next appearance in Beacon Hill Park this Summer.

The programme arranged by the band conductor is as follows: March, "National Emblem," by Bagley; fantasia, "Black Diamonds," by Walton; vocal solos, "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice" and "Comin' Thro' the Rye"; waltz, "Gold and Silver," by Lehar; symphonic arrangement, "Home on the Range," by Briegel; march, "The Flag Lieutenant," by Hume; march, "Argendab" by Thompson; overture, "Stradella," by Flitow; vocal solos, "The Lost Chord" and "The Sunshine of Your Smile"; waltz, "Glory of Egypt," by King; selection, "Serenade," by Toscelli, and paraphrase on "Nearer, My God, to Thee" by Langey.

ONTARIO CONSERVATIVES

The choice of Mr. W. Earle Rowe as leader of the Provincial Conservatives in Ontario will mean something in the nature of a rebirth and revival of that political party, and at a time when the prestige and popularity of the Hepburn Government are on the wane. It was symptomatic of the lively interest in the fortunes of Conservatism that so many prominent figures should have been contestants for the leadership. These included the successful aspirant, Lieutenant - Colonel George A. Drew, Mayor Cecil G. Frost of Lindsay, Mr. Leopold Macaulay, M.P.P., Mr. Wilfrid Heightington, M.P.P., and ex-Mayor Stewart of Toronto. Mr. Rowe, the choice of the convention, was a Minister in the late Bennett Government and is a Member of the Federal Parliament for Dufferin-Simcoe.

This choice of leadership comes at a time when there is a good deal of public resentment over the actions of the present Government of Ontario. The spoils system has been introduced in the Province, and some of the most valuable men in the Civil Service have been dismissed and their places taken by party workers. In this particular respect there has been discrimination against returned men. The Government, too, has repudiated contracts and violated agreements. It has pursued a policy of studied neglect in its attitude towards the Lieutenant-Governor, and has closed Ontario House in London, thus depriving the Province of a valuable trade contact, and, as well, in a variety of ways it has shown anti-British tendencies.

Ontario has chosen a man who gives promise of being an excellent leader of the Provincial Conservative Party. The convention has drawn up a platform of constructive policies which will re-establish the credit of the Province when put into effect. The Conservatives, indeed, have an excellent prospect of carrying the Province when an election is held within the next year or two. It is true that in the interval there is legislation to be enacted which will engineer a change in the demarcation of constituencies, designed to help the Liberal cause. That plan, if carried out, will probably assist in the defeat of the Liberals, unless something happens to arrest the present growing tide of feeling against Mr. Hepburn and his Ministers.

The Liberals, Independent-Liberals and Liberal-Progressives have now seventy members in a Legislature of ninety members. These members secured 791,139 votes in the general election, while the Conservatives, with only seventeen members, secured 621,374 votes. These figures and the turnover there has been in popular feeling give the Conservatives every reason for optimism, the more especially because of the virile leadership of which they are now assured, something they have lacked for several years.

GOVERNMENTAL INTERFERENCE

In this country it is planned to bring radio-broadcasting under Government supervision and control. In Great Britain there is a similar move as a result of the Ullswater Report on the future of the British Broadcasting Corporation. In the latter case the opposition to such a move is very definite, and for powerful reasons. Some of these are put forward by Lord Allen of Hurtwood, who believes that a special Minister to answer in Parliament for the cultural activities of the B.B.C. would have unforeseen results of a far-reaching character. At present, power is given to the British Government to exercise control over the B.B.C. in the last resort, the Minister responsible being the Postmaster-General. That power, however, is not evident, and Lord Allen says that in broadcasting the British have secured the best of both worlds "just as we have done in the relationship of Monarch and Parliament."

The danger of the proposal of the Ullswater Report, according to Lord Allen, is that it wants to make "simpler and more evident" (Government control), what should be left "elastic and less evident." "As soon," says Lord Allen, "as a cultural Minister is appointed to answer for the B.B.C. in Parliament he must almost inevitably slip into controlling it more and more. His very existence will invite an increasing number of questions and controversy. In the end it will be discovered that no Minister can be placed in such an invidious position without finding himself compelled to control what he has to defend. And thus we may slip, without realizing what we are doing, and without even desiring to do it, into the State-contro. of opinion at a most dangerous point. That Parliamentary authority should be in reserve is proper; that it should be 'evident' may prove a calamity. It will be generally admitted that helpful public criticism has been able to find every opportunity of showing formidable power even under present circumstances, and hitherto the B.B.C. constitution has combined with admirable discretion State authority with administrative and cultural independence. Let us beware before we alter that constitution in the most vital particular."

AN OLD-FASHIONED FARMER

There is a farmer in Canada who wants to be let alone, who does not want Government aid. He is Mr. Walter Smith, of Beaver Flat, Saskatchewan, and he explains in a letter to The Regina Leader-Post how the individual difficulties which he has experienced were caused through governmental interference in the years prior to 1930, as well as since that year. He says that during the past year there has been much talk and considerable Government money spent on the prairie farm rehabilitation scheme. Mr. Smith has been trying to carry out such a project since 1920, and has "worked, written, begged and fought" with the Government "to be allowed to put this sort of thing in operation on his own land." He says that the actual loss he suffered in crops destroyed, not making any allowance for the thousands of miles driven, the hundreds of letters and wires sent, train fare and other expenses incurred through flooding in the years 1922, 1923, 1925, 1927 and 1928 amounts to $7,674.65.

Mr. Smith says that in the years 1931 and 1933 "we took a direct loss of $309.17 through the operation of the open herd law in our R.M. This herd law stuff has been the direct cause of our plight to a greater extent than any other one thing, and it could have been prevented." It has prevented Mr. Smith from using his land as he otherwise would have. He points out that loss from "avoidable" grasshopper damage in 1933 was $791.78, and in 1932, through damage to wheat in the swath and by wild ducks, $810.77. During 1931 and 1934 thousands of dollars were spent on road work, but although Mr. Smith paid taxes on over 2,000 acres of land, he was not allowed to earn a single dollar. If figured on either assessment or population he should have been permitted to earn $500.

Mr. Smith says he was not in the wheat pool, but the difference on the 1930 crop in price as being paid pool members was $130.50. In 1935 he had a large part of his crop marketed before the set price, so there was a loss of $281.07. No representations made to the Wheat Board at Ottawa resulted in action. Mr. Smith asked Regina about the wild duck damage, but obtained no satisfaction. Mr. Smith does not blame the weather for any of his misfortunes. He just blames the Government for interference. He wants to be let alone, to farm his land as he sees fit.

UNEMPLOYMENT RELIEF

For the six years ending March 31, 1936, this country has paid out $609,158,000 for unemployment relief. This includes direct relief, public works expenditures and losses on wheat operations. Last year the relief expenditure was $172,000,000, although trade was improved and more persons were employed.

It is a far cry from the days of pumping in immigrants and the intensive campaign to people the country with rapidity. Now statesmanship is non-plussed by the problem of providing work and wages, or is there no statesmanship? Canada, with its great natural resources, should be a country to recover more speedily than any other from the unemployment of depressed times. It would recover if Governments did not continue to persist in interference with the wheels of industry. It is governmental taxation and governmental debts that form the incubus retarding a return to prosperity. It is an heretical doctrine of government that increasing taxation will restore economic welfare; the result is the reverse, and whatever progress towards recovery the Dominion has made has been despite governmental interference with business.

Within a period of two years the United States has gone from the lowest-taxed nation in the world to the highest. Last year Great Britain spent 16 per cent less per capita than the United States upon the cost of Government. Ex-Senator Henry J. Allen, writing in Canadian Business, says: "The sense of values, the sense of economy, the sense of responsibility, which drove England forward to keep the situation on an even keel recommend themselves to Nori . America. Four years ago I was sympathizing with England because I didn't see any way out for her. Now I wish that we were making the same record in economic recovery that they are making in England; and the reason why they came through as they did is because they used common sense."

REAL FISHING

If you have watched a sudden ripple veer
Across green shadows of a pine-arched pool
Or quivered to the thrill of straining gear
That makes an angler's pulse forget its rule;
Swift speckled fury, farther down the stream
Your stumbling waders tread, a though awake,
Have known the transience of ambition's dream
As line or leader parted, setting free
Your plucky trout, another's wrist to try;
Or better, if with victor's ecstacy
You'll echo Walton: in the quietness

We Lost the Toss

Old Jupe Pluvius won the toss and therefore there was no lawn bowling on Thursday as planned by S.T. and myself at the Beacon Hill greens against the two "vets" on the floor above. Arrived at the greens a little late as usual, but due to the softness of the playing surfaces there was no playing permitted. We glanced in the clubhouse and three card games were in progress, so we know what the bowlers do when not playing. Cut across near the cricket pitch then and sauntered through the park. Looked over the birds, beautiful colored ones at that; stopped off to say "hello" to Ursus Kermodei. The animal posed only once for us and that was when the park policeman came along. Officer Freddie Pook says he never misses a day in the Summer but that Ursus gets a ripe apple from him. Left the bear, who has been there since 1924, according to the sign on his cage, and stopped to watch a couple of outdoor checker games. When we left, Mr. Beechwood Avenue and Mr. So and So were all square and so many games to play. Our bowling match is coming off next Tuesday, providing Jupe Pluvius stays out of the competition.—J.D.

Mixed His Metaphors

A department manager of a large Victoria store took a friend, who recently arrived from England, to see a football game this week. The Englishman was highly amused at constant repetition of the expression: "Whaddya want, jam on it?"—When he arrived home for tea he decided to try it out on his wife when she inquired about the prospect of a hat to go with her recently-acquired Summer outfit. So up piped the Englishman: "By jove, what do you expect? Do you want it toasted?" . . . On Wednesday the master of Mary the Elford Street cat arrived at work with a number of scratches on his neck just below the collar line. Of course his friends made such remarks as: "Had another fight with the wife?" "What does the other man look like?" "Must have taken a lot of bites to make a man scratch like that." "What happened? Did you fall into a blackberry bush on the way home from a party?" After enduring the jibes all morning, the victim of the scratches explained that he let Mary out in the middle of a shower. Neglected in the rain for half an hour, the feline climbed a tree for shelter and proceeded to serenade the neighborhood. Rushing out to rescue the pet, her master could not coax her down from the lofty perch. He fetched a step ladder and flashlight from the basement and finally clambered up to the cat. Mary was so glad to see him she flung her arms around his neck with claws open. At least that is the tale he told us.—G.B.

In the Right Place

It is to be hoped that Stanley Peele is again chairman of the fireworks committee for Victoria's next celebration, and that he will have as an assistant the same man who worked with him in connection with Monday night's display. The pyrotechnics on Monday night unquestionably were the best arranged and most spectacular that have been seen in Victoria for a good number of years.—P.C.R.

A Charge for Delivery

If my neighbor, who can afford to take a trip into the United States, is allowed to bring back $100 worth of American goods for his own use duty free, why may not I, who cannot afford to be a tourist, import $100 worth of American goods for my own use duty free? Put it another way, why must I go and fetch what I want, and not have it delivered?—R.L.P.

Vancouver Shipping

VANCOUVER, May 29 (?). — Ss. Prince Rupert, of the Canadian National Steamships, Ltd., today was taken to Burrard Drydock Co. at North Vancouver for cleaning and painting. Later she will return to the company dock for annual overhaul and fitting up for special Summer cruises to Alaska.

Ss. Prince George is now berthed at the company dock undergoing overhaul. She was given a hull inspection and painted on the drydock at Prince Rupert recently.

Ms. Hauraki, of the Canadian-Australasian Line, sailed today from Powell River for Chemainus to take on additional cargo for Australia and New Zealand, it was learned here.

A total of 16,000 pounds of halibut was sold in Vancouver today, 6,000 pounds of chicken at 6.6 cents and 10,000 medium at 6.5.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

(From The Daily British Colonist of May 30, 1886.)

Candidate for Cowichan — T. R. Pike, of Mayne Island, announces himself as a candidate at the coming general election for the representation of Cowichan District. As a rancher he intends to make the farmers' interests identical with his own. He favors the existing school system and cause of education generally, and in his address pays a high tribute to the present leader of the Government, whose policy he favors.

Marine Notes — The bark Drotling Sofia, lumber laden, from Burrard Inlet for Adelaide, was towed to an anchorage in the Royal Roads yesterday by the steamer Alexander. The Sofia, if she can complete her crew by that time, will sail about Tuesday next. The steamship Wellington, from San Francisco for Departure Bay, passed up at 5 p.m. yesterday. The ship Commodore, from San Francisco for Nanaimo, is daily expected. Today the steamer Alexander will probably tow the bark Arabella from Esquimalt to Victoria. The steamer Mexico left yesterday afternoon for San Francisco. The steamer Empire, from Departure Bay, will be due at San Francisco tomorrow.

The Rose Maiden" — This cantata will be produced at the Victoria Theatre on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings next, under Mr. Pfeschner's leadership. The object is a worthy one, to aid the funds of the Royal Hospital. Seats may be secured at Lombard's music house.

SPEED LIMIT AND SCHOOLS

Sir,—Thank you for putting in my letter. Two bits were rather funny, perhaps because you couldn't read my writing. Could you make a correction? I wrote " . . . one loses respect for the law-giver"—not, law quick! The next is: "Then fine everybody by the mile after thirty miles per hour, etc.," not round and round, some extra words have got in.

HESTER WILKINSON.

A RECENT SENTENCE

Sir,—It was a relief to read the sensible letters in Sunday's Colonist upholding the magistrate for his sentence on an armed housebreaker. There is too much sloppy sentimentality about the treatment of youth these days. Also, magistrates often appear to be afraid to order salutory punishment. Everyone knows that gaol does no good. If all juvenile offenders were given a good old-fashioned spanking to upset their dignity; instead of being metaphorically patted on the head and made to feel young heroes, there would be undoubtedly a decrease in the alarming rate at which crime is growing. These juvenile criminals are the gangsters of tomorrow, and their activities ought to be quickly and promptly "nipped in the bud."

We know that crime is made exciting and interesting, partly by the movies, and greatly, I should imagine, by the flattering attention the offenders receive from the press. Hallowe'en is another example of how the authorities seem to be suffering from the sad delusion that "youth" spells "licence."

There is a good deal of quite unwarranted pride in the "wonderful" free education in this country; but to outsiders it often appears that children are given unlimited advantages (regardless of the groaning taxpayers) and unnecessary "frills," while the better things are ignored—discipline, religion and the ideals of good citizenship.

The individual who is inclined to weep over the poor, dear boys who get the much-needed occasional thrashing; please remember that the English public schoolboys who were brought up to expect a caning when they deserved it, were the boys who eventually became of service to their country in the Army and the Navy, and so leaders of men in the outposts of the Empire. I have never heard one of them remark that the discipline of school did him any harm.

When one stops to consider how serious armed robbery is, and reads so often of holdups and of policemen shot while doing their duty, I cannot see how anybody can object to a youth getting the lashes as a deterrent, when he evidently needed it so badly. E. A. FRASER.

LAW AND THE CRIMINAL

Sir,—With reference to Mr. James Moyes' letter in yesterday's (May 27) issue, "Law and the Criminal," may I say that if I am ever brought before a judge to be sentenced, I hope it will be Judge Jay, because however severe my sentence might be I believe I should know it was just what I deserved, what would likely be best for me.

Mr. Moyes cannot have lived in our city for twenty years as we have and observed by your paper, also public functions for the children, etc., during Judge Jay's many years as chairman of the school board, the just judgment and most exemplary life of Judge Jay, or he would not have written such a letter as he has written. ELLEN M. HOGARTH.

HORSE AND MOTORCYCLE

Sir, — Will you please let me, through your paper, tell a few details surrounding the horse and motorcycle stunts recently staged in this city, under the direction of Mr. D. B. Carley, of the Victoria Riding Academy.

In fairness to the local branch of the S.P.C.A. and Mr. Carley, the public should know that the stunts were originated by the Royal Corps of Signallers and produced as part of their demonstration, this year at Olympia in London, England, right in the heart of the home of British sportsmanship and where well-trained horses and men put on shows to thrill British crowds. It is obvious to all that the London branch of the S.P.C.A. would not let any cruelty pass its notice nor the Royal Corps of Signallers be party to any cowardly act.

It was evident, when the stunts were first practised here, that the horses had every faith in the motorcycles and as time went on they showed that they really enjoyed their work with them. Under Mr. Carley's instruction the horses and horsemen worked the act up to perfection, whilst the motorcycle riding was of the calibre that the Victoria Motocycle Club, whose members have a continental reputation for sportsmanship, are proud of.

Never, at any time, was there the intention to provide the "thrill-seekers" with their particular type of entertainment, but rather to show horse-lovers, as well as the public at large, that Dobbin can be just as much a part of our lives in 1936 as he was in 1836, if we are still willing to share risks with him.

COMMUNISTIC PROPAGANDA

Sir,—I must congratulate Mr. C. S. Thomas on his excellent letter in yesterday's edition, revealing further facts concerning Communism.

I feel that the chief danger in Communism lies in the fact that it continually endeavors to penetrate other organizations, either to win them over to the side of the "new order," or else, failing that, to disrupt their activities and destroy their usefulness.

"Communists try to influence the members of the C.C.F. towards a class-struggle." This, from The B.C. Workers' News, leading Communist newspaper in this province, is typical of Communist tactics. If this is the "Red bogey" some people talk about it certainly is a live one!

The American Citizen gives an excellent definition for the typical Communist: "One who raises the devil when he has no job and goes on strike when he gets one."

Not content with advocating social reform which would purge the present system of its evils and abuses and thereby improve it, Communists and their supporters and sympathizers demand the complete abolition of the present social order.

Personally, I favor something constructive—progressive social reform, rather than things destructive, such as revolution or the abolition of private enterprise and persopal freedom. BEN WARD.

LAW AND THE CRIMINAL

Sir, — When several letters appeared in The Sunday Colonist commenting on Magistrate Jay's sentence on J. King, I thought it would be strange if some one did not trot out that old heart-wringer, "Suppose it was your boy," and sure enough there it was this morning in a letter written by Mr. Moyes. If it were my boy I should feel that I had been a total failure as a parent and that I ought to feel grateful that he was in safe-keeping before bad came to worse.

Few of us in these days live in houses into which persons cannot force their way if they so wish; and whatever Mr. Moyes says, "Careless and thoughtless ways of some people" can never excuse housebreaking; with or without violence.

Mr. Moyes' letter is neither constructive or instructive; first he says that "homes must be protected," and then bewails the punishment the law inflicts in endeavoring to protect those homes.

As for "herding criminals together in one building in semi-idleness"; in modern prisons no criminals are herded, neither are they in semi-idleness. All this about the "starving and hopeless and homeless," and all the rest of this jeremiad—what are the camps for the single unemployed for? Those of us who are denounced as being "heartless judges of youth" probably have just as soft a heart and a little harder head. Any thinking person must realize that unless a punishment is more than a gesture, it is worse than useless and brings contempt on the law. To imply that Magistrate Jay has "given way to hate, cruelty, revenge and torture" is, of course, nonsense. Things have come to such a pass that if a judge gives a well merited sentence he has to apologize for doing so. There has been far too much fuss about nothing at all. Magistrate Jay has had many years experience of human nature as seen in the courts, and no one can accuse him of over-severity.

This discussion all arose because some days ago, three people, who one would have thought had plenty to do, disregarded that homely proverb: "Let the cobbler stick to his last." H. L. HEYWOOD.
P.O. Box 495, Victoria, B.C., May 27, 1936.

COMMUNISTIC PROPAGANDA

Sir,—I noticed in your edition of the 27th inst. a letter by C. S. Thomas, in which it was pointed out that to dismiss Communism as a "Red bogey" was but to deceive oneself. In fact, to do nothing about this very real menace, is to play right into the hands of the Communists who desire nothing better than the freedom to continue their subversive activities, and, unhindered, spread their misleading but very plausible doctrines.

In such activities as agitation among workingmen in order to disrupt commerce and industry, the winning of the allegiance of youths and students, easy bait for the intellectual agitators which infest our schools and universities, the fanning of the flames of discontent rather than spreading the desire to co-operate for better times and the radicalization by penetration and propaganda, of other organizations and parties, which after having been "converted," will continue this subversive work, lies the menace of Communism. S. BAXTER.
927 Pembroke Street, Victoria, B.C., May 28, 1936.

AT VANCOUVER'S GRAVE

Sir,—May I crave space in your valuable columns to express appreciation for the assistance rendered in connection with the planting of the arbutus tree at the grave of Captain George Vancouver, at Petersham Churchyard, England, on May 18.

It is, perhaps, fitting that acknowledgment should be made of the long and valuable work done by Post No. 2, Native Sons of British Columbia, Vancouver, in rescuing the illustrious sailor's last resting place from obscurity. It was thirteen years ago that the Native Sons of British Columbia, under the grand factorship of Dr. Frank Nicholson, and the chief factorship of Dr. Ken Casselman, forwarded to England seeds of the Douglas fir, Western hemlock and red cedar for the purpose of decorating the graveyard where Captain Vancouver was buried. The Vancouver Board of Trade, which was on excursion to England, took charge of the seeds and attended in a body at the planting ceremony.

Since that occasion, each year the Native Sons, through the courtesy of the Agent-General's office in London, have placed a wreath on the tomb each may 18. Last year the Native Sons expended several hundred dollars in rehabilitating the grave with new curbing and in straightening the headstone, improving the walks in the vicinity, etc. It was in recognition of this service that the city of Vancouver was presented with a picture by the people of Petersham this year.

I had long thought that it would be suitable that a tree from Vancouver Island should also adorn the churchyard, and particularly the arbutus Menziesii, which was discovered by Archibald Menzies, botanist with Vancouver. It was fitting that such a tree, commemorating the Island which Vancouver had named in honor of his friend, Quadra, and himself, and signifying the peace that they celebrated, should cast its pleasant shade over Captain Vancouver's grave. This was in keeping with the expressed wish of the people of Petersham, who were anxious to secure seeds of plants found by Menzies on that voyage.

The carrying out of the plan was made possible through the co-operation and industry of T. H. Estlick, secretary of the Tourist Trade Development Association of Victoria and Vancouver Island, who is entitled to generous thanks for the manner in which he undertook the task of handling the large amount of correspondence essential to the success of the project, and for his organizing ability and advice in arranging the multitudinous details connected with the scheme.

I also wish to publicly thank W. A. Newcombe, who gave of his time and vast knowledge of matters historical and scientific in checking up on charts, localities and data incidental to the discovery of the arbutus, and who assisted in other ways.

King Brothers, who generously assisted in solving the problem of transporting the arbutus tree to England, are also entitled to thanks, as is Captain Oyen, of Ss. Aakre, who undertook its delivery in England and who carefully tended to it on the long voyage.

KING GORDON TO START CAMPAIGN

C.C.F. Candidate Will Be Supported By Arnold Webster at Meeting Tonight

Professor J. King Gordon will speak at the first C.C.F. campaign meeting to be held this evening in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium at 8 o'clock.

Arnold Webster, Vancouver school teacher, who became a National figure overnight in the recent election contest with Mayor G. G. McGeer, M.P., will also speak on behalf of Professor Gordon.

Mr. Webster is president of the Provincial Council of the C.C.F., and was recently appointed to the senate of the University of British Columbia. He is a keen student of sociology and of the problems confronting Canada.

TOURISTS WILL REMAIN LONGER

Visitors to Island This Year Expected to Leave More Money Than Previously

Despite the many special, outstanding tourist attractions being offered this year by neighboring cities, letters to the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau would seem to show that many of the correspondents are arranging to stay longer on the Island this year than in previous Summers.

Most of these writers ask for particulars concerning accommodation in hotels, camps or Up-Island resorts, numbers stating they are considering spending their entire holiday on the Island. Very few writers ask simply for information as to the roads between Victoria and Nanaimo.

As, of course, each extra day that the visitor stays on the Island means extra expenditure, this would seem to indicate that more money per capita will be left in Victoria this year by our visitors than in 1935.

As customs figures for the early part of this year show an increase already of 15 per cent in foreign motor travel to the city as compared with last year, unless the unforeseen happens, 1936 should be one of the best tourist years Victoria has ever experienced, local publicity bureau officials report.

"GINGER" COOTE IS HONEYMOONING

Well-Known British Columbia Pilot Makes Hop Into Bonds of Holy Matrimony

VANCOUVER, May 29 (?).—Pilot R. L. "Ginger" Coote, well-known British Columbia flyer and hero of a half-dozen mercy flights, was back in the Cariboo district tonight, honeymooning with his bride of a few days.

The popular pilot arrived here from the North recently and slipped down to Seattle where he and Mrs. Verna Foster, of Chilliwack, B.C., were married.

The newly-married couple returned here for a day, then went to Chilliwack for a brief visit with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Cruickshanks, before leaving for Gunn Lake, where "Ginger" will make his headquarters for some weeks.

CULBERTSON on CONTRACT

By Ely Culbertson

World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst

A VERY INVOLVED HAND

I am indebted to Frederic Ley, of New York, not only for submitting an interesting hand, but the supplying the complete and flawless analysis as well. His letter follows:

"Dear Mr. Culbertson:

"The enclosed hand contains quite a dramatic play which I never before have encountered in newspaper, book, or at the card table. It is a suicide Vienna coup and I would be interested in knowing whether you have ever, in your wide experience, run across this rare bird. I used the adjective "dramatic" purposely because to set up a trick in an opponent's hand, and then to throw his partner in to squeeze him out of this trick plus the needed one, appeals to me a great deal.

"East, dealer.

"Neither side vulnerable.

"The bidding:

"After his original pass, and with his partner not knowing what suit he wanted led, East's double struck me as being pretty queer, and, probably, an effort to frighten my partned into four spades. I was afraid he might succeed, so I redoubled.

"West led the four of hearts and East's queen went to my king. Still placing East with all the spades, I led to the spade ace and finessed the spade jack on the return. Next I finessed the nine of hearts, and, when this worked, the rest looked easy. All I had to do was to lead twice through the ace of clubs, marked by the double in the East hand, and the contract was home.

"This worked perfectly dandy, as you can see. West slaughtered my club king on the first lead and knocked out the ace of hearts, leaving me to get four tricks out of this mess:

"The only hope was some kind of a pseudo-squeeze, and to do this three tricks had to be lost in a hurry. I led a diamond from the dummy and East's jack won. He returned the king of diamonds, which I took.

"If I threw West in to cash his two hearts, East simply would throw spades and I would get nowhere. So I cashed my king of spades, setting up East's queen and giving the Viennese touch to the coup. West discarded a club. I next led the ten of hearts, which pleased West, and he said so. East wasn't pleased and finally let go the recently promoted queen of spades. West couldn't resist cashing his last heart, which hopelessly squeezed his partner. (Of course, had he led a club I was cooked.)

"East was very angry, but I was boiling. Here was a play rarer than hen's teeth, and not one of them even mentioned it, despite the fact that I made some leading remarks.

"Yours very truly,
"Frederic Ley."

GOING AFTER THE PIRATES

Chinese Government Having Mystery Ship Made Ready For Service

During the Great War the Admiralty, copying a scheme in use during Commonwealth days, which was in turn copied from a Viking ruse mentioned in the Sagas, commissioned a number of harmless-looking merchant ships as decoys for German submarines, states The London Evening Standard.

They looked an easy prey which could be sunk without resistance, but the submarines suddenly found the White Ensign run up and numerous normal features of the ship—deck, houses and boats—collapsed to disclose quick-firing guns.

Now, nearly twenty years after the end of the submarine menace, a cargo ship has been transformed in similar fashion in one of the North-east Coast shipyards. She is a very ordinary cargo ship of rather more than twenty years of age, but she has already had a varied career.

SHIP IMPRISONED

She was built at Hartlepool in 1914 as the steamer Drujba for Russian owners, but only had time for one voyage to the Black Sea before the Great War. There she was imprisoned by the Turco-German blockade and remained at Mariupol until after the war.

As soon as the Dardenelles were opened, she slipped out before the Soviet authorities could take possession of the South Russian ports, and during the tail-end of the war boom did very well picking up cargoes and still flying the old Russian Imperial flag. It was on this account she was detained in Italy in 1920.

Before the Fascist revolution the Italian Seamen's Federation had great power. As soon as the Drujba arrived in port, she was boarded by emmissaries of the federation and the captain was told that they had received instructions from the Soviet to send him back to Russia. The captain refused to obey, but subsequently she was again boarded the guard overpowered and certain parts of the machinery taken away, preventing her from sailing.

BOUGHT BY CHINESE

For a long time she was laid up in this way, and was then transferred to the Anglo-German Steam Trading Company, of London, who renamed her Kodrus, but who had to face a lot of trouble with the Soviet Government. The Soviet Government stated they would confiscate her if they ever caught her in Russian waters. Later she was sold to London interests. Last year she was bought by the Chinese Government. It is now stated she will be a "Q" boat or mystery ship employed in the Chinese Government's determined efforts to clear Chinese waters of piracy.

Her hatches have been enlarged and fitted to house a number of armed speed boats, while the ship herself can have guns mounted on deck as soon as she reaches Chinese waters.

To all outward appearances a very ordinary tramp steamer, and a nice prize for a piratical junk, she can disclose her guns in a matter of moments.

EXHIBITS FOR SOUTH AFRICA

Railway Will Be Represented At Johannesburg Empire Exposition

Three hundred feet of display of exhibits by the Canadian Pacific Railway will be shown in the Canadian pavilion at the Empire Exposition to be staged at Johannesburg, South Africa, from September 15 to January 15 next, according to announcement by E. T. Noltie, director of exhibits for the railway company in Montreal, yesterday. It will be preponderantly a Canadian Pacific Steamship exhibition, and will be arranged in three spaces under the auspices of the Canadian Government.

The key exhibit will be a map of the world, designed by James Crockhart, on which the words, "Paths of Empire traced by the Canadian Pacific," will be inscribed, and it will show the routes of the railway's world cruises and Atlantic, Pacific and Canadian-Australasian service, together with the independent tours, as well as the principal hotels of the system. Other exhibits will include enlargements of Canadian Pacific services, such as: Across Canada; the Empress of Japan, flagship of the Pacific fleet; the Empress Hotel, Victoria; the Banff Springs Hotel in the Rockies; the Great Lakes, with Canadian Pacific steamship facilities thereon; the Royal York Hotel at Toronto; the Empress of Britain, flagship of the Atlantic fleet, and others. At the foot of the map of the world a key index, giving details of routes, etc., will be shown.

Everything shown at the exposition by the railway has been manufactured in the exhibits branch shop at the Windsor Station, Montreal, under the supervision of Mr. Noltie. The exhibits were photographed in different stages of being dismantled and forwarded to the Canadian Government Exhibition Commissioner at Johannesburg for erection in the Canada building at the exposition in that city.

WILL CHRISTEN CRAFT TONIGHT

Cruiser Will Be Launched From Rodd Brothers Plant on Gorge

From the boat-building plant of Rodd Brothers, the Gorge, a cruiser, built for H. W. Miller, of Victoria, will take the water tonight. It will be christened Dawn.

The motor yacht is forty-two feet in length, of streamlined design and is of extra solid construction, with the cabin finished in mahogany and the interior of attractive panelling trimmed with mahogany.

The Dawn is powered with a marine-type eight-cylinder Lycoming engine of 125 horsepower. It has a wide cruising range, her tanks carrying 300 gallons of gasoline and approximately the same amount of water. The novel feature of the yacht is the control system. The controls are operated automatically by vacuum power, which operates the reverse gear also.

The boat is well laid out. The pilot-house has all controls and instruments within easy reach of the helmsman. There is a large chart table, a chesterfield and a tiled fireplace fitted with Rockgas heater. The after cabin is comfortable looking and has accomodation for four persons. In the forward part of the craft is the owner's stateroom, containing double berths, with the usual closets and conveniences.

The engine-room is reached through hatches in the floor of the pilot-house, and is equipped with a fire extinguishing apparatus containing five jets suitably situated and controlled from the wheel-house. The galley, well furnished, is reached by a companionway leading down from the wheel-house.

MAILS FOR THE EAST AND VANCOUVER WILL LEAVE HERE EARLIER

Effective June 1, Postmaster George H. Gardiner announces the Seattle steamer will leave Victoria at 5 p.m. instead of 4:30 p.m. as at present. Mail for the United States will close at 4:30 p.m. on and after that date.

Mails for Vancouver and Eastern points now close at 1 p.m. instead of 1:15 p.m. owing to the earlier departure of the Vancouver steamer.

WESTBOUND TRAIN WAS DERAILED ON C.P.R. MAIN LINE

VANCOUVER, May 29 (CP)—The locomotive and ten cars of a westbound Canadian Pacific Railway Company freight train were derailed at 6.55 a.m. today when the train struck a rock four miles east of Revelstoke. No one was injured.

Officials hope to have the line open again about 10 p.m. today.

Train No. 1, due here at 10.30 p.m. is expected to arrive about 10 a.m. tomorrow, and train No. 3, the "Dominion" due at 9 a.m. tomorrow, will be about nine hours behind schedule, company officials here said.

SAILING FOR ORIENT SIDE

Japan Leaving Here Today For Far Eastern Ports Via Hawaii

With a total of 250 travelers in all classes aboard, the Canadian Pacific Ss. Empress of Japan, Captain L. D. Douglas, R.N.R., commander, is sailing for Far East ports by way of Hawaii this afternoon. Sixty-five of the liner's passengers are leaving the vessel at Honolulu. The Japan is due here at 4 o'clock and scheduled to sail southward at 5:30 o'clock, an hour and a half later.

DOCKED OVERNIGHT

With passengers and cargo, the Holland-America combined freight and passenger liner Delftdyk, Captain J. M. Stamperius, arrived alongside Rithet Piers shortly before 9 o'clock last evening.

Cargo for this port totals 265 tons of general from Europe and California, which will be unloaded this morning, while doors and cooperage stock are being stowed aboard for the British market.

Completing here, the Delftdyk will continue to Vancouver to discharge Mainland freight.

HERE FOR LUMBER

To load 550,000 feet of lumber, the freighter Harpathian was to arrive overnight from Crofton, according to King Brothers. Stevedores were to start stowing the cargo at 8 o'clock and continue working until noon, when they will quit for the day out of respect for their late co-worker, James Hall, who was accidentally killed while engaged loading a freighter at Ogden Point Piers on Thursday.

GETTING REPAIRED

The little whaler Blue, which was hit by a dying sperm whale on the hunting grounds last week, is on the marine ways of the Victoria Machinery Depot undergoing repairs.

A survey of the ship after she was hauled out disclosed a broken stern frame, damaged rudder and several twisted plates.

ANNUAL OVERHAUL

The Adversus, Mounted Police cruiser, after seasonal cleaning and painting, was refloated again yesterday. The Adversus was on the marine ways of Yarrow's, Limited, for two days.

WHALE OF A JOB

A "whale of a job" has been handed to the United States coast guard service, by act of President Roosevelt, of May 4, according to Pacific Coast guardsmen, when orders were received this week to police whaling activities. In conjunction with the customs service, this new duty of the coast guard will conform with the Geneva treaty of 1931. The act stipulates that sulphur bottom calves must be under sixty feet; finbacks, fifty feet, and humpbacks, thirty-five feet. This last clause may be a stickler in carrying out Presidential orders, according to patrol boatmen. They express guarded opinion that the President should have made more definite arrangements.

DIESEL ELECTRIC

The Hamburg-America Line has just ordered a passenger vessel which, according to The Motorship, will be the first vessel of this type propelled electrically in conjunction with Diesel engines. As is well known, the Normandie is an electric ship, but she is equipped with steam turbo-generators supplying current to the propelling motors. In the case of the Hamburg-America Line vessel, however, Diesel engines will be utilized instead of steam turbines. As the owners will, no doubt, have to consider the construction of a large trans-Atlantic liner at a later date, it is possible that they wish to gain experience with this novel form of machinery with a view to its adoption in much larger ships.

Completed Crossing

RIO DE JANEIRO, May 29 (AP)—The Zeppelin Hindenburg, completing her South Atlantic crossing arrived here today.

"So you don't want your son to be an artist!"

"Certainly not," replied Mrs. Cumrox. "When we want pictures we can afford to buy the best without using anything home-made."

JUDGE UPHOLDS NOTICE TO QUIT

Interesting Case Decided in Nanaimo—No Canadian Precedent Known

NANAIMO, May 29.—A notice to quit, given by a landlord to a tenant, which contains a statement to the effect that, if the tenants stay on after the expiration of the time for vacating, the rent will be considerably enhanced in amount, does not void the notice and the tenant is obliged to vacate as required.

So held His Honor Judge Barker this morning in proceedings taken under the Landlord and Tenant Act by Alex Gusola against Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Nixon, who are residing in Mr. Gusola's residence on Stewart Avenue, Newcastle Townsite.

Evidence was adduced on behalf of the tenants to show that rent had been paid regularly and that the increased amount of rent set out by the notice had been tendered, but His Honor held that the terms in the notice to quit of increased rent was a threat and not an offer to create a new tenancy, and he ordered that the residential premises be vacated.

C. Murray Reynolds appeared for the landlord, and C. H. Beevor-Potts for the tenants.

The decision given was interesting, in that there are no Canadian cases on the point, although the decision is in accordance with judgment of the English courts.

Funeral Chapel at 3:45 p.m., proceeding to Christ Church Cathedral, where service will be conducted by Very Rev. C. S. Quainton, Dean of Columbia, at 4 o'clock. Interment will be made in Royal Oak Burial Park.

HEARNS—Funeral service for Henry Hearns will be held on Tuesday at 2:15 p.m., Rev. James Hood officiating, and interment will be made in the family plot in Ross Bay Cemetery.

BORRIS—There passed away yesterday afternoon at the Royal Jubilee Hospital Audrey Ruth Borris, aged one-and-a-half years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Borris, 1930 Haultain Street. She was born in Penticton and is survived by her parents and one sister, Ellen. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

TWO COUPLES TIE IN COLWOOD MEET

Two couples finished in a deadlock for top place in the invitation foursomes tournament held yesterday afternoon at the Royal Colwood Golf Club. Miss Gladys Irving paired with Mrs. Hadley to turn in a card of 95-20½-74½ to gain a tie with Miss Mary Mackenzie-Grieve and Mrs. Huse, who posted a score of 80-14½-74½. The tournament was a great success, with more than fifty entries facing the starter.

Those who were in charge of the sports were Miss Muriel Thompson, Mr. Gale, Mr. Young, Rev. Mr. Borrows and Mr. and Mrs. V. Madden.

CLAYOQUOT HAS FINE GALA DAY

Victoria Day Well Celebrated —Many Present From West Coast Points

CLAYOQUOT, May 29. — From Nootka, Hesquiat, Ahousat, Tofino, Ucluelet, Bamfield and Port Alberni, people gathered at Clayoquot to celebrate on the occasion of Victoria Day.

Many events such as boat races, skiff races and canoe races were held off the fine sand beach here.

Ucluelet Athletic Club won over Tofino A.C. by the score of 17-12. K. Atodai, of Ucluelet, umpired.

In the trolling boat race under 12-h.p., 18-h.p. and 30-h.p., Peter Webster, of Ahousat; George Shamrock, of Ahousat, and Hawold Kimoto, of Clayoquot, won the first prizes respectively.

WAR HORRORS ARE PICTURED

The greatest influence for peace in the world today is war.

This paradoxical expression is the keynote of the British picture, "Forgotten Men," which was previewed for a Victoria audience, composed of naval, military and other service officers, ex-service men's organizations, public officers and the press, last night at the Atlas Theatre.

The film will be presented for three days, starting Monday, at the Atlas Theatre, John D. Garrard, manager, announced.

FRANK DISCLOSURE

Heretofore censored films, the property of the British Museum and protected by Crown copyright, the pictures frankly disclose the horrors of war in every branch of the service. The film depicts the Great War from both sides of the fighting lines and concerns itself with the unknown men in the trenches.

MANY ATTEND

Brigadier D. J. MacDonald, officer commanding Military District No. 11, and staff officers; Commander C. T. Beard, S.N.O.; and his staff officers; Col. Walter Bapty and officers of the First Battalion, Canadian Scottish Regiment; Lieut.-Col. Aubrey Kent and officers of the 5th (B.C.) Coast Brigade, and officers of other Victoria militia units; Col. W. N. Winsby and Capt. C. A. Gill, of the Pro Patria Branch, Canadian Legion; Capt. S. W. N. Saunders, of the Britannia Branch; Capt. W. J. C. Johnstone, of the Naval Veterans Branch; Major W. Garrard and W. Douglas, of the North Saanich Branch and Brigadier J. Sutherland Brown and Jack Rivers, of the Army and Navy Veterans, were among the audience of 150 who saw the picture previewed.

DANCE REVUE IS ENJOYED BY AUDIENCE

CHARM OF CHILDHOOD SUPPLEMENTED BY ART

Most children have a natural charm, and when art is employed in the right way to enhance the setting or develop the natural graces, the appeal is irresistible, as the audience attending the Western School of Dancing display at the Shrine Hall last evening quickly realized.

Here were seen the flowering of the child imagination in many delightfully interpreted dances, several of which developed nursery-rhyme or child story-book themes into the presentation of which the children projected themselves with high enjoyment. Miss Dorothy Cox, principal of the school, and her associate teachers are obviously skilled instructors, and to their natural grace the little girls and boys have had the enhancing touches of good technique added, giving rhythm, unison and expressive beauty of movement and facial play. The charmingly appropriate costuming of the various scenes, the pretty music, the good lighting effects, and clever directing and staging made of the whole thing a most delightful entertainment.

OUTSTANDING THINGS

The programme extended to sixteen numbers, in which about thirty pupils took part. While each item of the entertainment has an individual interest and beauty, the piece de resistance was reserved for the very end, this being the "Sun Ballet," in which almost the entire school appeared.

This offered a succession of pretty tableaux. The stage represented a garden, the sun symbolized by a figure dressed in gold and copper poised above the "fairy flowers" which formed the border.

In the number, "In a Street," a delicate bit of comedy was enacted by children who impersonated two old ladies, one a prim dame on her way to buy sausages, and the second her charming old sister who had set her heart, on this sunny Spring day, on the purchase of a pair of red slippers. There was a great variety of characterizations in the passersby, others who played their parts with special distinction being the old gentleman and the "Red Wizard."

"The Pixies' Wedding" in the early part of the evening, Joy Groves precociously clever impersonations of four types of persons telling the story of "The Old Woman Who Lived In a Shoe" (which was received with enthusiastic applause); the number entitled "One Summer's Day"; a vivid Cossack dance; and the beautiful little "Venetian Scene," were among the other special attractions of the evening. Harold Cox with recitations, and Gwendolen Cox with special dances, were the guest artists.

THE PROGRAMME

Overture, "The Golden Sceptre" (Schlepegrell) — Piano, Barbara Fraser, violin, Gilbert Margison; 'cello, Bert Botten.

Rhythm Routine—Harold Thornley.

Serenade—Dorothy and Gwendolen Cox.

"Everything Stops for Tea" — Lenore Crawford.

Impersonations—Joy Groves.

"Broken China"—Miss Mischief, Betty Cutt; China figures, Joan Morgan and Bunty Wright.

Russian Dance — Dorothy and Gwendolen Cox.

"She Shall Have Music"—Gwendolen Cox.

"In a Street" (Beatrice Mayor)—Place, London; period, late nineteenth century. Eliza (first old lady), Ann Crowther; Anna (second old lady), Miriam Schwabe; an old gentleman, Bill Crowther; a young man, Rosemary James; a rag and bone merchant, Carol Watson; a dancer, Joy Groves; an actor, Barbara Henderson; a street singer, Doreen Margetts.

ENGINE'S CREW MADE HELPLESS

Locomotive Runs Thirty Miles With Engineer Dead —Fireman Unconscious

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29 (AP). — With its engineer lying dead along the tracks and its fireman unconscious, a helper locomotive ran nearly thirty miles between Marysville and Sacramento today minus controlling hands in the cab.

The lead locomotive ahead of the crewless engine controlled the eight-car train, however, and railroad officials said the sixty passengers involved were in no danger.

Western Pacific officials here said a bursting steam pipe caused the unusual tragedy, which was discovered when Harry Main, the fireman, recovered consciousness and notified the crew of the lead engine.

BOUND FOR OAKLAND

The train, westbound from Ogden, Utah, to Oakland, backed up two miles to notify a dispatcher. A search of the track to a point ten miles south of Marysville resulted in the finding of the body of the engineer, O. M. Juillerat.

Trainmen said the condition of the locomotive indicated the engineer was the first to detect trouble, stepped to the fireman's side of the cab, and apparently fell out.

NOTED BRITISH JURIST PASSES

Lord Darling Was Famed For Witticisms Uttered From the Bench

BROCKENHURST, England, May 29 (CP).—Lord Darling, whose quarter-century of service as a judge in the court of King's Bench was chiefly known to the public at large for the witticisms he uttered from the bench, died today at the age of eighty-six.

His appointment to the High Court in 1897 was severely criticized, but Mr. Justice Darling later justified his appointment, revealing himself to be clear, logical and masterful in his conduct of a case. He retired from the bench in 1923, and afterwards sat with the judicial committee of the Privy Council and participated in the debates in the House of Lords. He also wrote some lively verse.

His humorous observations from the bench were always discharged without the faintest quiver of the face. On one occasion, counsel, in addressing the jury, appealed to them as "men of the world."

When it came to Mr. Justice Darling's turn to address the jury, he remarked "Gentlemen, the learned counsel has appealed to you as men of the world. Frankly, he addresses you at such length that I almost began to be afraid that before he concluded you were likely to become men of the next world."

"Your friend Pam looks happy."

"But her husband looks miserable."

City & District

Scouts Praised — The Saanich council Thursday night praised the work of Boy Scouts in destroying tent caterpillars in Ward Five. Accounts totaling $4,903 were approved for payment.

U.C.T. Council Meeting—Victoria Council of the United Commercial Travelers will hold its regular meeting tonight in the K. of C. Hall, when a report of the grand council session will be submitted by the grand council delegates.

Express Regret—Referring to the late B. C. Nicholas as "one of the staunchest friends the bureau ever had," directors of the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau on Thursday passed a motion of regret at his passing and ordered that a letter of condolence be sent to his relatives.

Accidental Death—An inquest was held yesterday afternoon before Dr. E. C. Hart, coroner, into the circumstances connected with the death of James Hall, who was fatally injured while loading lumber at Ogden Point Docks on Thursday morning. A verdict of accidental death was returned by the jury.

Meeting Tonight—There will be a meeting at the Liberal headquarters, corner of Government and Broughton streets, tonight at 8 o'clock for the voters of Ward Two, in the interests of C. J. McDowell, the Liberal candidate. The chairman will be Dr. Hugh Clarke, and the speakers, Mrs. A. C. Hall, H. M. McGiverin, Frank Hall and C. J. McDowell.

Plan Investigation—The Saanich council Thursday night appointed a committee to investigate a rock-throwing incident in a municipal school over a year ago, when a child was injured. Efforts to secure compensation from the council had been made by the child's parents, although the municipal school board had refused any assistance. The school board will be asked to submit all correspondence relating to the matter to a committee comprising Reeve William Crotich and Councillors W. R. Woods and E. C. Warren.

Battleships Crippled in Manoeuvres

SAN PEDRO, Cal., May 29 (AP).—Two crippled battleships, the Mississippi and New Mexico, were slowly moving into home waters tonight, as the vanguard of the United States fleet which is returning piecemeal from the 1936 secret manoeuvres.

Turbine trouble developed on the eighteen-year-old dreadnaughts in the midst of battle exercises off Panama Canal as 160 warships and some 400 airplanes were engaged in a spectacular manoeuvre.

POLICEMAN ATTACKED BY PACK OF DOGS

FORT ERIE, Ont., May 29 (CP).—Constable Walter Kent said he had been set upon by a pack of half-wild dogs while returning home after duty early today. The leader, a large Police dog, refused to retreat even when he used a nightstick and kept tearing at a sleeve of his tunic. The pack only retreated after he drew his revolver and fired.

The time used is Pacific standard for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish high water from low water. Where blanks occur in the table, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

To find the depth of water on the sill of the Esquimalt drydock, add 14.9 feet to the height of high water as above given.

To find the depth of water on the sill of the Songhees drydock add 30 feet to the height of high water as above given.

A bricklayer was building a wall when a man in overalls came along and passed some rude remarks about bricklaying in general. The bricklayer, somewhat annoyed, asked sarcastically, "And wot do you do for a living?"

"I'm a precision fitter," the other replied, "and in our trade we have to work to a thousandth of an inch."

"Really?" said the bricklayer. "And 'ow many thousandths are there in an inch?"

RECEPTION HELD

The delegates were met at the boat yesterday afternoon and taken to the Empress Hotel, where they registered. Later in the afternoon a delightful reception was held by Mrs. M. R. Pearce, Beechwood Avenue, who had with her as cohostesses, Mrs. H. O. English and Mrs. John Baxter. The drawing-room was arranged with masses of lovely Summer flowers and on the tea table, at which Mrs. J. A. MacFarlane, president of the Presidents' council, poured tea, were flowers and candles in shades of yellow and white, the P.E.O. colors.

The business session commenced at 7:15 o'clock at the Empress Hotel, Mrs. David J. Clark in the chair, and reports and business matters occupied the major part of the evening. An interesting address on the work of the Sisterhood was given by the supreme president, Mrs. Newell. Mrs. Hazel Hodson, chairman of the convention committee, gave the address of welcome on behalf of the four Victoria chapters, and Mrs. T. H. Agnew, of Vancouver, replied for the visitors. Mrs. Arthur Dowell sang two charming solos, the accompaniments being played by Mrs. Paul Green.

The sessions continue today, starting with a round-table discussion at 8:15 a.m. This evening a banquet will be held, to which the husbands of the delegates and members have been invited.

Receptions Mark Silver Anniversary

Rev. J. S. and Mrs. Patterson were the recipients of many lovely gifts, baskets of flowers and congratulations during the past few days, the occasion being the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Patterson were married on May 27, 1911, at Winnipeg, with Rev. Dr. Sinclair officiating, at a double ceremony, Mrs. Patterson's sister also being married to a minister at the same time. Mrs. Patterson, with her sister and mother, arrived in Canada from Scotland one week before the wedding. Mrs. Patterson's maiden name was Bertha Hillary Sagar.

Eleven years were spent on the Prairies by Mr. and Mrs. Patterson before coming to Victoria in 1922, when Mr. Patterson took over the duties at St. Paul's Church, Victoria West, where he served for eight years, following which time he went to Knox Presbyterian Church, where he ministered for five years. He is now pastor of St. Andrew's Church, North Vancouver.

RECEIVE ROSE BOWL

Over one hundred guests attended the receptions held on Thursday evening and last night at their home, 878 Esquimalt Road, and assisting Mr. and Mrs. Patterson in receiving was their daughter, Miss Louise Patterson. Last night a special presentation was made by Mr. L. Parkington, on behalf of the congregation of Knox Presbyterian Church, of a lovely silver rose bowl to the hosts.

The supper table was daintily centred with a bowl of pink carnations, and presiding at the urns were Mrs. T. Richie, Mrs. J. Farrell and Mrs. R. Scoble. Assisting in serving were Mrs. R. Foulis, Mrs. R. Taylor, Miss Lex Cruickshanks, Miss Dorothy Baxandall and Miss Doris LePage.

Mr. Edmund Pearson, on Thursday evening, sang several solos and also played piano selections. Mr. Patterson will leave for the Mainland tonight to conduct his services in North Vancouver on Sunday.

Lovely Gardens Will Be Opened At Annual Fete

By kind permission of Colonel and Mrs. S. L. McMullen, the annual garden fete of St. Luke's Church, Cedar Hill, will be held this year in the beautiful gardens of "Strangewood," Gordon Head, on the Marine Drive.

The natural attractions of this wonderful garden, with its velvet lawns, situated on the cliffs of the Gordon Head promotory, the lily ponds in their rocky settings, flowering shrubs, rose gardens and flower beds, which will be at their best on June 17, as well as the paths through the forest leading down to the beaches and the look-out bastion, and, above all, the marvellous views of sea and islands, will undoubtedly bring a large number of the citizens of Victoria out to Gordon Head to attend this garden fete, which has been held without a break by St. Luke's Church for some forty years and is naturally an institution of the parish.

The famous Gordon Head strawberries will be at the height of their quality and these will be served with cream or sold to be carried away. There will be home-cooking stalls and garden produce stalls. Vegetables and fruits, fresh that day from the gardens will be sold. There will be home-made candies and novelties, and afternoon tea, for which the ladies of the Woman's Auxiliary of the church are justly noted, will be served all afternoon.

Other garden attractions are promised for the visitors, and arrangements are being made for a display of Old English folk dancing, which in this wonderful setting is sure to be greatly appreciated. Special buses will be run from Victoria, the time of which will be announced later.

Old Pupils Hold Dance To Aid Fund

A happy throng filled the gymnasium of Norfolk House School last night when the Old Girls' Association entertained at a truly delightful dance in aid of gymnasium equipment.

So gay were the decorations and the music so exhilarating, that an atmosphere of informality and fun permeated throughout the entire evening.

Under the direction of Miss Betty Chadwick, brightly colored balloons were strung between the windows, and streamers in various colors hung as shades from the windows. The platform, where the orchestra sat, was banked with branches of greenery and balloons, and baskets of lupins and irises were placed in front. Spring flowers were used throughout the rooms, and in the schoolroom, where the buffet supper was served, vases of mauve stocks and yellow irises were gracefully arranged.

Spirited and beautifully executed dances, arranged by Mrs. Dorothy Wilson, were the "Mazurka" and "Czardus" from the "Ballet Coppelia." The dancers were lovely in Hungarian costumes and included Wynne Shaw, Dolly Bradshaw, Isabelle Benson, Vivienne Combe and Dulce Hamlet.

The committee responsible for the success of the evening included Miss Prudence Yerburgh, Miss Angela Davis, Miss Kythe Mackenzie, Mrs. K. R. F. Denniston and Miss Betty Chadwick. Dancing was enjoyed until 1 o'clock this morning.

Clubs-Societies

Native Daughters of B.C.

The Native Daughters of British Columbia, Post No. 3, held its monthly social on Wednesday evening in Knights of Pythias Hall, Broad Street. There was a good attendance of members. Mrs. C. Davies had charge of the evening's entertainment, and many new and interesting games were played. Later a sit-down supper was served by the hostesses for the evening, who were Mrs. W. Kinsman, Mrs. Ralph Cruickshanks, Miss Mildred Chrow and Miss P. Kinnaird. The next meeting of the post will be a business session.

Cantata to Be Sung by Girls' Choir

At Strathcona Lodge School, Shawnigan Lake, this afternoon, "Hiawatha's Wedding Feast," a cantata, the words of which are by Longfellow, the music by S. Coleridge-Taylor, will be given under the direction of Stanley Bulley.

This will be the principal feature of a generous afternoon programme that will begin at 2 o'clock with a gymkhana, this to be followed by tea at 3.30, and the cantata at 4.

The riding in the gymkhana will be under the direction of Mrs. Hamish Cameron, and the order of the programme will be as follows: Horsemanship, pole-bending, potato race, musical chairs, orange and plate race, walking race, slow horse race (at the canter), and masquerade race.

Sixty-five voices will take part in the cantata, which is one of the really beautiful works of the kind in musical literature. The story, of course, is well known, the poem describing Hiawatha's wedding feast, a festival of great rejoicing as two tribes, long at enmity, are united by the marriage of Hiawatha, of the Ojibways, to Minnehaha, a lovely maiden of the Dakotah tribe.

MISS RAY CARMICHAEL

MR. BASIL H. ROBSON

The engagement is announced of Miss Ray Y. Carmichael, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Carmichael, of Victoria, to Mr. Basil H. Robson, only son of the late Mr. J. Robson, of Gateshead, England, and of Mrs. Robson, of 1158 Pandora Avenue, Victoria. The wedding will take place in June.

Latest Beauty Culture Aid to Be Shown Here

Victoria women will have the privilege of an analysis sitting to the sensational new Derma-Lens, which will be demonstrated at the McFarlane Drug Company Store on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, June 4, 5 and 6. This sensational aid to beauty culture will be demonstrated by Miss Vivian Carson, specially-trained Helena Rubinstein diagnostician.

Equipped with a system of very finely adjusted lens-reflecting mirrors and aided by cleverly arranged lights, the Derma-Lens clearly delineates every line, wrinkle and blemish now in evidence and makes possible the recognition of approaching changes and defects now not apparent. In this way the diagnostician is enabled to recognize the cause of the defect, and by scientific measures, eradicate present lines and take precautions which will prevent the development of those forecast. Miss Carson states that the Derma-Lens was recently perfected by Helena Rubinstein in Vienna, who worked in collaboration with physicians.

DETECTS FLAWS

"In this amazing apparatus," says Miss Carson, "you are able to see fine lines, so minute as to be invisible to the naked eye and that will not be so for some years to come. Being forewarned, you can avert the threat through special corrective care. Is a relaxed condition of the muscles already beginning to form, be it ever so imperceptive? Then the Derma-Lens reveals the condition and you know that you need a muscle tightener to restore the resiliency and firmness of the muscles before a double or drooping chin makes its appearance. Likewise, other coming dangers cast their shadows on this ingenious device, enabling treatment to be taken before the condition becomes acute."

FUTURE OF YOUR SKIN

The Derma-Lens is so constructed as to make it possible for the patient as well as the diagnostician to see "into the future of her skin." The patient is looking into one end of the machine and the examiner into the other. In this way the patient has a graphic view of the condition of the skin and can follow with understanding the defects and remedies as explained by the diagnostician.

With the Derma-Lens it is possible to see, not only as one is today, but a forecast of what one will look like ten years from now. With this knowledge in hand it is more than possible to check the tendency revealed, and in this way gain added years of youthful beauty. QvC.yq-vz-re-inO W dpnc5er T H

CATHEDRAL

Members of the Christ Church Cathedral enjoyed a pleasant evening Wednesday in the Guild Room of Memorial Hall. This meeting, with Mr. Chris Howland as chairman, completed a successful season for the cathedral branch of the organization. At the conclusion of the business, the meeting adjourned to the chapel of the cathedral for the purpose of installing the newly-elected officers for the forthcoming season. At this service, Rev. T. R. Lancaster, chaplain of the branch, presided, and gave a brief but fitting address to suit the occasion. In the tastefully-decorated Guild Room a sit-down supper was served, at which Mr. Lancaster was presented with two hand-painted pictures of local scenes by the members of the association, as a parting gift and a token of appreciation for his valued services and friendship. The branch as a whole regrets sincerely that he will leave the cathedral parish for that of Sidney. The new president, Mr. Len Dixon, spoke a few words in regard to the coming season which will commence in the Fall and proposed a vote of thanks to the retiring executive. An impromptu dance concluded the evening.

WOMEN HOLD CELEBRATION

South Saltspring Institute Sponsors Victoria Day Festivities

SALTSPRING, May 27. — There was a large crowd of spectators present at Fulford Harbor last Monday to attend the Victoria Day celebrations, which were carried out under the auspices of the South Saltspring Women's Institute.

Several boat loads came from Ladner and other parts to witness the crowning of the May Queen and take part in the sports. The procession started at 1:30 p.m. from the Institute Hall and proceeded to the field belonging to Captain L. D. Drummond, where, as in previous years, the day's proceedings took place.

Following the queen's float, which was decorated entirely in red, white and blue by Misses Gladys and Cree Shaw, was a stream of decorated vehicles.

QUEEN CROWNED

On arrival at their destination, the old-time ceremony of May Day was performed; the queen, Kathleen Lacy, of Isabella Point, was crowned by the ex-queen, Ruth Goodrich, of Vesuvius Bay. The former was attended by three maids of honor, Rosemary French, of Burgoyne Bay; Kazuka Mikada, of Ganges, and Lottie Reynolds, of Beaver Point. The queen was presented with a bouquet and silver bracelet, each princess receiving the same gifts, the bracelets being of a rather different design. The ex-queen also received a bouquet and a box of chocolates.

On the grounds, stalls were erected, having miscellaneous articles, ice cream, soft drinks, fruit, etc., for sale and presided over by Mrs. R. Maxwell, Mrs. A. Davis, Miss G. Shaw and Mrs. Fergus Reid. Teas were under the management of Dr. Bryant, Mrs. J. Cairns, Mrs. G. E. Akerman, Mrs. H. Townsend, Mrs. P. C. Mollett and others.

The first prize for decorated car was awarded to Mrs. P. C. Mollett; 2, Mrs. J. D. Reid; 3, Mrs. Fergus Reid. Decorated bicycle: 1, Alison Maude; 2, John French; 3, John Calder. Decorated baby buggy: 1, Mrs. Ronald Lee; 2, Mrs. Clifford Lee. Best comic costume, John Cairns.

SPORT RESULTS

Membership Tea

The Oak Bay Sub-Division of the Catholic Women's League held a delightful tea at the home of its president, Mrs. W. H. Munsie, Belmont Avenue, yesterday afternoon. The new members were welcomed by Mrs. Munsie and introduced by her to the division's chaplain, Rev. Father J. R. Buckley and the other members. Tea was served from a lace-covered table centred with a crystal bowl of pyrethrums, in shades of pink to deep rose, and lighted by tall green tapers in crystal holders. Mrs. Gordon Evans presided and was assisted by Mrs. Charles H. Parker, Mrs. W. W. Baines, Mrs. H. C. Morris, Mrs. Thomas Brown, Mrs. M. Morning and Mrs. H. A. Goward. During the afternoon Mrs. J. C. Ciceri sang several charming numbers. Rev. Father Buckley, Miss Harriet O'Brien, diocesan president of the league, and Mrs. William McManus spoke on the work and objects of the league.

TO SPEND $300,000 ON ROADS TO MINES

The roads will be built into developed areas where there are producing mines, Mr. Crerar said, but the exact routes have not been settled.

Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative Leader, thought the roads should be built in areas likely to benefit from new development rather than in areas where there were established mines. A producing mine hardly needed special assistance, but road-building in exploration areas would help to bring to light new wealth.

OUTLINE OF INDUSTRY

Mr. Crerar gave the House a brief account of the value of the mining industry to Canada. He said the first suggestion of a geological survey was made in Upper Canada 100 years ago by William Lyon Mackenzie. The first actual survey was not made for some years, and it was not until 1907 that Federal Government activity in connection with mining became important.

The total value of all minerals produced in Canada in 1935 was $308,000,000, said Mr. Crerar. It was worth noting that for the first three months of 1936 gold production exceeded that of the same period in 1935 by 17½ per cent. One-third of all the freight handled by Canadian railways in 1935 was contributed by mines. The industry paid $88,000,000 in wages in 1935 and used large quantities of lumber, machinery and foodstuffs, all of which bulked large in the economic life of Canada.

BLOWING BRIDGE MAY ADD TROUBLE

troops marched into North China garrisons today.

These reinforcements strengthened garrisons at Tientsin, Peiping and Fengtai. Two Chinese protests against the military "occupation" have been fruitless.

Japan, Chinese sources assert, now has 20,000 soldiers in Tientsin and Peiping. Japanese claim there are only 8,000, but admit more are en route.

CANTON PROTESTS

Chinese authorities of Tientsin and Peiping, at the demand of the Japanese army, took firm steps to end student demonstrations. Students of Tientsin yesterday paraded and declared a strike in protest against the Japanese troop movements and smuggling into North China.

Authorities warned "street parades will be stopped by force."

CHINA MUST CHOOSE

TOKIO, May 30 (AP).—Yakichiro Suma, Japanese Consul-General at Nanking, was quoted by The Domei News Agency today as declaring the Sino-Japanese situation is such that "China must choose between dependence on Japan or with Japan."

Suma's statement, that agency said, was made at Kobe, Japan, on his arrival there en route to Tokio from Nanking to report to Foreign Minister Hachiro Arita.

The newspaper Asahi quoted Suma as stating:

"It is reported that China is approaching the Soviet and also is harboring designs to carry out some anti-Japanese schemes with an understanding with America and Great Britain.

"Such action would only be explainable by China's ignorance of Japan's real intentions and power. If such reports prove true, this trend must be rectified. Permanent peace in the Far East is impossible unless China depends upon Japan."

STARTING CAMPAIGN FOR LOWER INTEREST

The move will not affect municipalities, where tax penalties up to 8 per cent are to continue, unchanged. Nor will it affect commissioned areas under Government supervision, where the same penalties apply.

No estimate of the cost of the plan could be given, because the Government is not able to compute the difference on interest it has not received. Provincial taxpayers will take a loss at some points, it was conceded.

SEEN AS LEVER

Commenting on the move, the Premier said:

"These are the things we can get at. This will be a lever to force the Dominion down. We are going to demand—to suggest that interest rates are too high, so we have to set the example ourselves."

The campaign will not extend to arbitrary scaling down of interest rates on British Columbia bonds, however, it was learned on reliable authority. The next stage in the campaign was not disclosed.

SURPRISE MOVE

The Premier's announcement that the Province was embarking on an interest-reduction campaign came as something of a surprise, after repeated Treasury statements in the last few weeks insisting on a sound credit position, and careful future financing.

On April 23 last, the Province announced it would meet a maturity of $3,500,000 at New York out of cash accumulations in revenue account. It did, on May 15. On May 2 it was said the cash surplus in the last fiscal year exceeded $5,000,000 and had retired debt to that extent.

On May 11 the Government declared it would not enter the Federal loan council scheme, and that all its external commitments had been taken care of up to an including 1939. On May 23, the Province announced reduction by the banks of interest on provincial borrowings to 3½ per cent, and said its credit was solid, with current revenues exceeding expectations.

In all this, little had been said about the capital position of the Province, the only place where a reduction of interest would have direct effect. References were made to British Columbia Treasury bills held by the bank, but the amount of these holdings was not stated.

ONE YEAR'S INCOME

From statements in the House and other records, it was known British Columbia had borrowed $26,000,000 from Ottawa on Treasury bills up to November last. On February 15, this year, $4,300,000 additional was borrowed from the same source, to meet a maturity abroad.

The Province was understood to be paying 4 per cent on such loans from the Dominion, with borrowings in excess of a complete year's income, mostly for unemployment relief in the last four years.

Several times since his return from Ottawa, the Premier has referred to a "settlement" impending with the Dominion. Apart from this year's works programme already arranged, the only other settlement talked of in provincial circles was the discussion with Ottawa of this large, unfunded debt.

Coming on top of this situation, mention of an "interest reduction campaign" struck a new note in provincial affairs, and one that has not been entirely explained yet.

Other members of the Government declined to comment on the announcement, which was made by the Premier, in person.

CAPITALISM TO BE DISCUSSED

Dr. Clem Davies to Tell Where World's Utopia Is Foretold

Questions relating to "The Fall of Capitalism . . . What Next?" will form the basis of Dr. Clem Davies' question box on Sunday night at the Empire Theatre when the following queries will be faced in a pulpit message:

"Is Capitalism's death struggle now taking place? What are its various aspects? What drastic measures are being resorted to? What is the summary of the natural causes of the crisis? How can the wheels of industry be kept moving and the laboring class be given steady employment and the Capitalist system be perpetuated.

"What kind of government will supersede the Capitalist system? Where is the World's Utopia foretold? Is the dawn of a new day already here? What is the only hope for this present troubled civilization? Where is the 'Red Wave' prophesied? Is war bound to come or will world capital force a conflict to save its hand?"

MORNING SERVICE

"In Tune With the Infinite" will firm the subject of a morning message of practical working consequence which will deal with ways of solving personal problems in business, social life, health and personality. A definite simple plan to harness the power of religion, the Scriptures and one's faith will be shown.

During the Summer season it is requested that attendants do not come to the edifice so early, necessitating such a long wait before service. Motorists, picnickers, campers and tourists are invited to come as they are whether conventionally attired or not.

WILL LECTURE ON JEWISH QUESTION

E. E. Richards to Answer Seven Queries Regarding Return of Jews to Holy Land

"The Jewish Question and the Divine Purpose in Israel, World Opposition and the Final Conflict in Palestine" will be the subject of E. E. Richards' address, to be given under the auspices of the British-Israel World Federation, on Monday at 8 o'clock, in the Campbell Building, Fort and Douglas Streets.

The speaker, having been impressed for some time with the necessity of reconsideration of the "Jewish Question," and in the belief that the Divine purpose must be fulfilled, in response to many urgent requests, will endeavor to deal with the subject from the Bible standpoint.

The following questions will be answered: "What is the Old Testament view of the Jews?" "What is the New Testament view of the Jews?" What Divine purpose have they served in this dispensation?" "Have they a national right to return to the Holy Land?" "What power of powers are behind the opposition to their return?" "Will this opposition bring off the final conflict of this age?" "Is the re-union of Ephraim-Israel and Judah-Israel imminent?"

WILL REVIEW AND ILLUSTRATE BOOK

The weekly meeting of the Victoria and District British-Israel Association on Tuesday night at the Foresters' Hall will be of a rather unusual character.

Mrs. O. A. Brake will review H. V. Morton's book "In the Steps of the Master," while D. Flintoff will illustrate her talk with two reels of motion pictures, which he has specially prepared, depicting scenes in the Holy Land, where Morton made his journeys.

Hypnotism Denounced Is Subject

"Ancient and Modern Necromancy, Alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced," will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday. The golden text is: "They that observe lying vanities forsake their own mercy" (Jonah ii, 8).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "When the even was come, they brought unto Him many that were possessed with devils; and He cast out the spirits with His word, and healed all that were sick" (Matthew viii, 16).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health With Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Question—Does Christian Science, or metaphysical healing, include mediestation, material hygiene, mesmerism, hypnotism, theosophy, or spiritualism? Answer—Not one of them is included in it."

TAKING STOCK IS EVENING SUBJECT

At the Emmanuel Baptist Church this Lord's Day morning, Dr. A. S. Imrie, the pastor, will take for the subject of his sermon, "The Church Awakening." At the morning service the choir under the leadership of W. H. Money, will sing "The Glory of the God of Israel" (Adams).

"Let Us Take Stock" will be the subject of the evening sermon by Dr. Imrie, and the choir will render the anthem, "Who Is Like Unto Thee" (Sullivan). Harold Parfitt will be the soloist.

The Presbyterian Church of England is this year celebrating the centenary of its initiation, which took place in March, 1836, when the members of the presbyteries of Lancashire and Northwest England met in Manchester to form themselves into a synod. The twelve congregations of that time have risen to three hundred and forty-seven. It is not a large church but its weight is altogether beyond its members, according to the British correspondent of The Christian Century.

TO GIVE FIRST TALK SUNDAY

Garland Anderson, Negro Lecturer, at Empress Hotel Until Wednesday

The life story of the Negro, Garland Anderson, who comes to Canada on a lecture tour sponsored by Rev. Richard ("Dick") Sheppard, Chaplain to His Majesty the King, is interesting, unique, and little short of amazing.

As a boy he sold newspapers on the streets of San Francisco, finding his way to Chicago at the age of eleven, where he became a bootblack. In maturer years New York sees him, self-educated and the author of a play, "Appearances," staged through the friendly help of David Belasco, Al Jolson, and other notables.

Not since the days of Booker T. Washington has any American Negro acquired the public favor accorded Mr. Anderson, especially as a lecturer. His naturalness, simplicity, freedom from sensationalism, obvious sincerity, and extraordinary understanding of life's problems, not to mention a captivating sense of natural humor, have spontaneously evoked from the public the title of world teacher.

ON WAY TO ENGLAND

Mr. Anderson's present tour has taken him across America and to Honolulu. He is now on his way to England, and his future plans will hardly permit a return to British Columbia for years to come. On this, his second visit to Victoria, he appears under the auspices of the Victoria Truth Centre.

Those who heard Mr. Anderson on his former visit will find his present lectures even more helpful and inspiring. The course will open under the title, "Christ and Destiny," tomorrow evening at the Empress Hotel. Admission is free to all four lectures, the remainder of which follows Monday, "According to What You Have"; Tuesday, "Power of Your Imagination"; Wednesday, "How to Be Prosperous." The lectures begin at 8 o'clock in the Empress ballroom.

SERIES ON FAITH TO BE CONCLUDED

Rev. C. G. MacKenzie's Evening Sermon on "Faith in the Church" Morning Conference Review

The recent Conference of the United Church in British Columbia will be the subject of an address by Rev. C. G. MacKenzie in Centennial United Church, Gorge Road, on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The choir will render the anthem, "The Lord Is My Shepherd" (Dennis), and Mrs. Florence Noel will give a selected solo.

At 7:30 p.m. Mr. MacKenzie will preach on "Faith in the Church," being the last in a series of sermons on "Faith." The music by the choir will be an anthem, "Just as I Am Without One Plea" (Bowles). The Sunday school, which has been meeting at 2:30 p.m. will be held at 10 a.m. in the Sunday school room.

PULPIT GUEST IS REV. E. W. HORTON

City Temple to Be Supplied by Assistant Minister of First United and G. E. Grist

Rev. E. W. Horton, B.A., assistant minister of First United Church, will be pulpit guest at the Victoria City temple on Sunday morning and will preach on "The Three Fools." At the evening service G. E. Grist will be in charge and will speak on "Saving Life."

Music for the morning service will include Auber's anthem, "O Lord Our Strength," and a soprano solo, "Abide With Me" (Liddle), by Mrs. M. W. Dawson. The evening anthem will be "Ye That Stand In the House of the Lord," by Walter Spinney.

The seventh General Council of the United Church of Canada will begin in Chalmers Church, Ottawa, on the afternoon of September 23, under the presidency of Rt. Rev. Richard Roberts, D.D., Moderator of the Church, whose term of office ceases with the first session. Rev. Dr. Peter Bryce of Toronto, and Rev. Dr. W. L. Armstrong have been nominated by the presbyteries for the moderatorship during the next two years.

Next Assistant at Local Cathedral

REV. ERIC O. ROBATHAN, L.Th.

Now in charge of the Anglican congregations at Chemainus, Westholm and Crofton, who has been appointed to succeed Rev. T. R. Lancaster as assistant to Very Rev. C. S. Quainton. He will begin his duties here in August.

JESUS' EMOTIONS TOPIC OF SERMON

Rev. H. P. S. Luttrell to Speak on "Composure of Jesus"—Evening, "Anger of Jonah"

Tomorrow morning at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church Rev. H. P. S. Luttrell will preach on "The Composure of Jesus," a study of the emotional life of the Master, who said, "My peace I give unto u" (John xiv. 28). In the evening Mr. Luttrell will discuss "The Anger of Jonah," based on the fourth chapter of the Book of Jonah.

At the morning service John Bell will sing "Green Pastures" (Sanderson). The choir will sing Woodward's anthem, "Far From Their Home." In the evening Mrs. Leonard Batchelor will sing "Jesu, Lover of My Soul" (McDougall). The evening anthem will be "God Is Love" (Nichol).

WHITSUNDAY WILL HAVE OBSERVANCE

Canon Chadwick to Preach on "Day of Pentecost" and "Symbols of the Spirit"

Whitsunday, one of the three great festivals of the Christian Church, will be observed at St. John's Church with appropriate services, when there will be Holy Communion at 8 o'clock, Morning Prayer and Holy Communion at 11, and Festal Evensong and sermon at 7:30.

The rector, Rev. Canon Chadwick will preach at the 11 o'clock service, his subject being the "The Day of Pentecost."

In the evening there will be an organ recital by G. Jennings Burnett immediately before the service, commencing at 7:10 o'clock, and during the service the choir will sing the Whitsunday anthem by Sterndale Bennett, "God Is a Spirit." The evening sermon subject will be "The Symbols of the Spirit."

Nearly four million of the 52,000,000 outcasts of India, the descendants of the original tribes, have already entered the Christian Church; and continue to come at the rate of 120,000 a year. Just now there is a strong mass movement away from Hindiism, because it has not given the untouchables a fair chance. The future of this movement may bring very many into Christianity. This is adduced by The Canadian Churchman as a reason for church union in India and especially South India.

BAPTISTS MOVE TOWARDS UNION

Convention in Vancouver Next Week to Discuss Union of Western Groups

The Baptists of British Columbia will convene in Vancouver next week in meetings that will synchronize with the sixtieth anniversary of the beginnings of their cause in this Province. The Convention of Baptist Churches will hold its fortieth annual meeting and the Baptist Women's Missionary Society will convene in its twenty-second annual assembly.

The president of the convention is W. C. Kelley, K.C., with Rev. Elbert Paul, of Vancouver, and Mrs. William Russell, of this city, as first and second vice-presidents. The latter is also president of the women's group, with Mrs. C. C. Spofford as honorary president. Rev. Dr. A. S. Imrie, of this city, will give a series of three addresses at the forenoon session of the convention.

One of the principal subjects of discussion will be the proposed nationalization of the Baptist work in Canada, beginning with the amalgamation of the various Western bodies. Should the amalgamation be effected, there would be three conventions in the Dominion, the Western, that of Ontario and Quebec, and the third of the Maritime Provinces. At present the Canadian Baptists co-operate for foreign missions, but not for home missions nor training of candidates for the ministry.

The First Church delegates are Rev. G. A. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Agnus Galbraith, and Mrs. C. C. Spofford. Emmanuel will be represented by Rev. Dr. A. S. Imrie and Mrs. Imrie. Mrs. William Russell, A. B. McNeill, J. R. Westcott and Miss R. Parfitt. Rev. F. W. McKinnon, the Douglas Street pastor, will also attend. The sessions will be held in the First Baptist Church from June 1 to 5.

MAINLAND PASTOR TO PREACH HERE

Rev. Andrew Grieve, of Vancouver, Will Conduct Both Services At Central Baptist

Pastor Andrew Grieve, of Vancouver, will have charge of both services tomorrow in Central Baptist Church, in the absence of Rev. J. B. Rowell, the minister.

The visitor from the Mainland is well known here as one who gives messages that uplift and stimulate and as a faithful exponent of the word of God.

"LOST CONTINENT OF MU" IS THEME

On Sunday Dr. T. Christie Hipp will hold two services at 940 Mears Street. At 11 a.m. the "I Am' Teachings" will be presented. Dr. Hipp has had personal contact with the appointed messengers of this teaching.

At 7:30 p.m. Dr. Hipp will lecture on "The Lost Continent of Mu," which will be a fascinating account of this great civilization and its knowledge.

ENTERING NEW HOME IS THEME

Rev. E. F. Church to Discuss Happy Experience—Morning, "Kingdom of God"

The services at Metropolitan United Church on Sunday will be conducted by Rev. E. F. Church. At the evening service he will speak on "Moving Into a New House," as one of the happiest experiences that can come to a person, and only once or twice in a lifetime.

The choir, under the direction of Frank Tupman, will sing the anthem, "All People That on Earth Do Dwell" (West), and also the anthem, "Fear Not, O Israel" (Spicker), with the solo parts being taken by Mrs. Stokes, Mrs. Kemsley and H. L. Harmsworth.

At the morning hour of worship, Mr. Church will preach the sixth in a series of sermons on "The Kingdom of God." The subject will be "The Laws of the Kingdom of God," and the special Scripture is the Parable of the Talents in the 25th chapter of Matthew. The choir will sing "Send Out Thy Light" (Gounod).

Samuel Carter, of Guelph, Ont., has given $25,000 as an endowment to the Evangelical Church of the Deaf in Toronto, the only place of worship in Canada for people who cannot hear. It is a service for the silent, conducted by sign language, wherein the worshippers keep their eyes open during prayer. The organization is under the care of the United Church of Canada.

CAMPAIGN WILL OPEN TONIGHT

Liberals Meeting in Rex Theatre—Rally Is Planned For Next Friday

Opening his campaign in the Federal by-election, C. J. McDowell, Liberal candidate, will hold his first meeting tonight at 8 o'clock in the Rex Theatre, Esquimalt. His final rally will be held next Saturday. During the coming week, the Liberal candidate will give a series of radio talks.

Next Friday evening the Twentieth Century Liberal Association will hold a rally in the Shrine Auditorium in connection with the by-election campaign. The speakers will be J. Gould, president of the Students' Council of the U.B.C.; W. P. Lawson, president of the Twentieth Century Club; Frank C. Hall and George F. Gregory.

At a meeting of the Young Liberals on Friday, W. P. Lawson was re-elected president. Other officers chosen were: Vice-president, Frank C. Hall; second vice-president, Miss M. Miller; treasurer, Walter Harris; committee chairman, W. Maynard, Mr. Fairclough, Victor Speed, Miss Dallas Homer Dixon and Mr. Maltman.

The honorary executive consists of Prime Minister Mackenzie King and Premier Pattullo as honorary presidents, and Attorney-General Gordon Sloan and Alan Chambers as honorary vice-presidents.

Frank C. Hall, who spoke, outlined a programme of action for the club, which was approved.

May Flower Show to Be Held Today

The annual May flower show of the Victoria Horticultural Society will open today at 12 o'clock noon in the A.O.F. Hall, corner of Cormorant and Blanshard Streets.

Upwards of seventy classes of seasonable flowers have been arranged, and keen competition is assured in a large number of classes. In addition to these, a number of displays from large growers will be seen, among which will be several new varieties and local originations.

The Woolridge Bulb Farm, of Sidney, will also display some of its many irises.

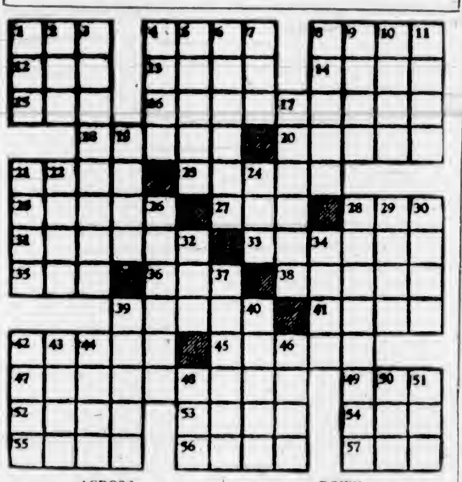

Mrs. Biggerstaff Wilson and Mrs. J. A. Hibberson will undertake the judging.

An auction of the various exhibits will take place shortly after 9 p.m.

Coming home from school along a country lane, a little boy and girl found themselves confronted by a herd of cows. The girl was for instant flight. "Oh, come on," said the boy bravely, "cows'll never hurt you."

The little maiden hesitated, anxiously regarding the foremost cow which surveyed her placidly. "Yes," she replied, "but when a cow looks at you like that it's a bull."

ANSWER TO YESTERDAY'S PUZZLE

STENOTYPY

The Greatest Opportunity of This Decade

The success secret of over forty thousand alert and forward-looking young men and women on the American Continent today.

Expert Stenotypists can write steadily and for long periods at a sustained speed of 200, 250, 300 words or more per minute without fatigue. In actuality an accomplished Stenotypist can write shorthand faster than even rapid speakers can dictate.

Modern Business Demands Accuracy, Efficiency, Speed and Economy. Stenotypy Meets Those Demands.

Do you know of any other field or product that can legitimately talk about better jobs—more money for operators—and at once an economy—a means of saving both time and money for the employer? Stenotypy does that consistently.

Alert, ambitious young men and women recognizing the needs of modern business are equipping themselves to render this highly efficient service.

Class training under personal supervision both for those employed and training in spare time, and for those able to devote full time, is being inaugurated in Victoria.

CARE OF LEPERS TO BE SURVEYED

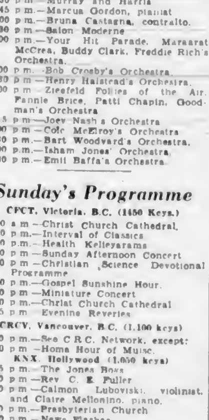

A meeting in the interest of the "Mission to Lepers" will be held on Wednesday at 3 p.m. in the Y.W.C.A.

This is a sequel of the recent visit to this city of Mr. Anderson, general secretary of the mission, who described the growth in hospitals and homes for lepers in China, Japan and India.

The mission cares for 60,000 lepers. It was reported that lepers in one place have become self-supporting by farming. Japan now segregates its lepers, but in South China and Africa there are some millions "without its camp." The public is invited to the Wednesday meeting?

CHRISTIANITY IS THEME AT NIGHT

Rev. G. A. Reynolds Will Speak on Its Vindication or Condemnation —Morning, Jesus' Compassion

Rev. G. A. Reynolds will speak at both services in the First Baptist Church, Sunday. The subject for the morning worship will be "The Compassion of Jesus" (Matt. ix. 36). The choir will sing Smith's "O Worship the Lord in the Beauty of Holiness." Miss J. Hall will sing "God Is Love."

The topic for the evening service will be the question of "The Vindication or Condemnation of Christianity?" (Acts iv. 14). The choir will render "Safe in His Love" (Wilson), and there will be a duet, "Ivory Palaces" by Miss Alice Bond and Stanley Honeychurch.

Says Thousands Of Californians Will Visit City

"Thousands of Californians are to visit Vancouver Islands this Summer," declared Clarence Duggan, Seattle, who recently visited the South. Mr. Duggan has been a booster of the Island since 1904, when he first came here. He is known to many Victorians as a former professional Seattle baseball player.

"During my visit to San Francisco, Los Angeles, Del Monte, Monterey and other important centres, I put over some real publicity for Victoria," he said. "I know of no other place so well provided by Nature as this Island.

"My preaching on every trip I make South contains the same theme—be sure to go to Vancouver Island!"

MILBURN'S HEALTH AND NERVE PILLS

The potent cause lies in the hurried life we lead, in the extreme nervous tension and fever heat with which we follow in the pursuit of wealth, position and pleasure.

Late hours, want of necessary rest, excessive mental or physical exertion all put a strain on the system it is unable to withstand. No wonder then you pass restless nights and get up in the morning with no ambition to go about your daily tasks.

Take Milburn's H. & N. Pills and see what they will do for you.

What Today Means

"GEMINI"

If May 30 is your birthday the best hours for you on this date are from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m., from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. and from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. The danger periods are from 7:30 to 9:30 a.m., from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. and from 9:30 to 11:30 p.m.

This day will bring to many thoughts that have been indelibly impressed, by both words and deeds, upon their memory. Perhaps this memorial day's significance will prove an inspiration for a renewal of patriotic loyalty in many who have permitted radical utterances to cause them to forget the love their country is entitled to. For some reason equilibrium may be subjected to disturbing influences. Be careful that in going up or down stairs, or while walking, you do not lose your balance. This is an auspicious day for those seeking diversion. Married and engaged couples, as well as those with an ardent devotion, must be careful not to engage in any lengthy dissertation regarding what constitutes right and wrong this day.

If a woman and May 30 is your birthday you have probably a vast store of useful knowledge. You perhaps have also the gift of being able to impart it to others. You have the knack of making friends. You possibly have very little trouble in having your own way, as your powers of persuasion are almost irresistible. You should have a great deal of faith, as optimism and cheerfulness are inheritably a part of your nature. Knowing how to drive a bargain, you ought to make a good business woman. While decidedly sentimental, you are also very practical. As a teacher, singer, writer, lecturer, saleslady or artist you very likely will attract favorable attention. You are fully capable of being a wonderful wife.

The child born on May 30 is apt to display an unusual amount of intelligence. Being ambitious, this youngster will be full of enthusiasm for anything that appeals to it.

If a man and May 30 is your natal day, your one great weakness may be that trifles upset you too easily. You must learn to control your nerves and temper if you wish to know real happiness. As a journalist, publisher, manufacturer, inventor, actor, author or salespromoter, success is apt to crown your efforts.

Library Soon to Be in Operation

CHEMAINUS, May 29. — Cowichan district as a whole rejected the proposed library scheme at the January plebicite, but, as Chemainus was solidly behind the proposition, an offer was extended whereby a group governing committee was enabled to make financial arrangements for subscribers only to receive full benefits as extended by the Vancouver central committee to other units. It is expected to have the local group library in operation by July 1, and a building has been given for this purpose.

The district covered includes from Chemainus River to the northern boundary of Cowichan district. Nearly 200 subscribers have already been secured, and the committee advises that anyone wishing to join in the above-mentioned area should get in touch with their secretary at 83-M, Chemainus, at once, so that the necessary accommodation may be made.

THOMSON AND FERRIER REACH BRITISH GOLF FINAL

Detroit Back in Third Position; Cards Gain Win

AMERICAN LEAGUE

DETROIT, May 29 (AP).—Clarence (Red) Phillips, big rookie right-hander from Oklahoma making his first start of the season for the Tigers, pitched Detroit back into third place in the American League today with a 4-to-3 ten-inning victory over the Chicago White Sox. It was the only game scheduled in the American League.

Marvin Owen batted in the winning run with the bases full and two out, smashing a hard drive that hit Pitcher Babe Phelps in the stomach and bounced away for a single, sending Al Simmons across the plate.

Phillips, up from Beaumont in the Texas League, held the hard-hitting Sox to eight hits, four of which came in the second inning for all the Chicago runs. He walked only one batter. Bonura's single, Hayes' double, and singles by Piet and Morrissey accounted for the Sox' three runs.

Goose Goslin's second home run in two days and his seventh of the season tied the score for Detroit in the fifth. His four-base clout yesterday came with the bases loaded.

	R.	H.	E.
Chicago	3	8	0
Detroit	4	11	1

Batteries — Phelps and Sewell; Phillips and Cochrane.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

ST. LOUIS, May 29 (AP). — Held helpless by Mace Brown for four innings, the St. Louis Cardinals fell on him and Cy Blanton for six runs in the fifth and won the odd game of the series from the Pittsburgh Pirates today, 9 to 7.

	R.	H.	E.
Pittsburgh	7	15	0
St. Louis	9	8	3

Wildness Helps Cubs

CHICAGO, May 29 (AP).—The Cubs mixed eight passes and seven hits off Gene Schott today for an 8-to-1 win over the Cincinnati Reds, making Curt Davis' home debut a successful one. Davis allowed seven hits, but tightened in the pinches.

Schott's wildness and a costly error by Alex Kampouris enabled the Cubs to score all their runs in the first four innings. After that, Wally Hilcher, who relieved Schott, held them to one hit.

Chicago	8	7	1

Smart Pitching Display

NEW YORK, May 29 (AP).—Lefty Al Smith, the Giants' second best pitcher, retired twenty-three men in order through seven and two-thirds innings today and then allowed a pair of singles to ruin his no-hit game as the New Yorkers battered the Boston Bees, 15 to 0.

A Texas leaguer by Hal Lee with two out in the eighth and a hot grounder through the infield by Bill Lewis in the ninth were the only Bee hits off Smith.

New York	15	20	0

Batteries — Benge, Blanche, Weaver, R. Smith and Lopez, Lewis; Smith and Mancuso, Spencer.

Klein Hits Stride

PHILADELPHIA, May 29 (AP). — Chuck Klein picked up at Baker Bowl today where he left off three years ago when he was traded, and drove in five runs as the Phillies trampled the Brooklyn Dodgers, 10 to 2.

He found the range of the right-field wall in the first inning to hit his first home run since his return from the Chicago Cubs. He added a double and a single before the game ended, sending the Brooklyns back to the National League cellar.

	R.	H.	E.
Philadelphia	10	11	5

COAST LEAGUE

SAN DIEGO, May 29 (AP).—Hammering three San Diego hurlers for seventeen blows behind the seven-hit pitching of young Ken Sheehan, the San Francisco Seals made it two straight over the Padres, 12 to 0, here today. It evened the series at two games.

A woman who was having a house built, detected one of the bricklayers halving the bricks with his trowel. With a triumphant gleam in her eyes she approached him swiftly and said: "Isn't that rather a primitive way of cutting a brick in half?"

The man looked up, smiled and said: "Lor' bless yer dear heart, lidy, there's a far more primitive way than this, believe me."

"Really, and what's that?" she inquired.

Bobby Ford Will Meet Painter in Final Tomorrow

BOBBY FORD and Vic Painter, a pair of young shotmakers, will match strokes over the scheduled thirty-six-hole route tomorrow for the men's championship of the Uplands Golf Club. The title battle will start at 9:40 and the afternoon jaunt will be under way at 1:30, while the first flight final between Bob Morrison and H. O. English will commence at 9:30. Following the finals, long-driving and approaching competitions will be staged, after which the prizes will be presented. The Feesey Cup and "B" championship trophy will also be passed along by R. R. Taylor, president of the club.

SQUADS REGISTER SECOND TRIUMPH

Lampson Street and Oaklands School Lacrosse Teams Gained Easy Victories

Playing at Bullen Park, the Esquimalt students snowed the Victoria West boys under an 11-1 defeat, while at Hollywood Park, Oaklands blanked Sir James Douglas, 5-0.

H. Simmons led the Lampson Street School goal-getters with six tallies to his credit. G. Cooper with three, and R. Edgar with two, were the other Esquimalt scorers. G. Wilmot netted Victoria West's lone tally.

OAKLANDS TRIUMPH

Opening the scoring late in the second quarter, and then driving home three markers in the third session and another in the final period, Oaklands defeated an improved Sir James Douglas squad, 5-0.

The winners were the better team and superior stickhandlers, but the fine work of Irish, in the opposing net, prevented any higher scoring. Turner, in the Oaklands goal, also turned in a smart performance.

BOYS' CENTRAL WIN

Led on the offensive by D. Evans who netted four markers, Boys' Central defeated South Park, 9-5, on their home grounds.

Williams with three, and H. Evans and Holyoke with one goal each were the other Boys' Central scorers.

R. Clark garnered three of the South Park tallies, and McGraw and Sellick accounted for the others. Ed Popham refereed.

SEATTLE NINE TO PLAY VACS IN TWIN BILL

Washington State Softball Champions Will Perform Here Today

Victoria softball fans are promised one of the early season's greatest attractions today, with the visit here of the highly-touted K. & W. Fruit Company nine of Seattle, Washington State champions, to play a twin-bill exhibition series with the Victoria Athletic Club.

The fixtures will be played at the Royal Athletic Park, with the afternoon game carded at 2:30 o'clock and the evening clash at 6:15 o'clock.

BATTERY READY

After a good workout at the park yesterday afternoon, Alderman McGavin and Postmaster Gardiner are in great shape for the ceremony, and promise to give Detective McLellan quite a reception as he steps to the plate.

George Glendenning, first string twirler in the Vacs camp, will go to the mound in the afternoon fixture, and will have Malcolm McBride as his battery mate. Lloyd Jones, southpaw hurler, and "Chuck" Turner, both members of the Silent Glows, will be on hand in case Glendenning bumps into trouble.

The visitors are reported to be carrying a smart ball club, one that rates to be the classiest ever brought to this city. Advance tickets have been moving rapidly, and early indications point to a bumper attendance for the double bill.

Football Line-Ups

Victoria City—Gibbons, J. Payne, Peers, Dickson, Rowe, Moody, Roper, C. Robbins, G. Robbins, Robertson, Halkett, Moore, Tregallis, G. Payne and C. Robbins.

Wrestles Here Tonight

TONY CATALINO

Colorful Italian heavyweight wrestler and victor over Rudy Strongberg, clever German grappler, in his last appearance here, who returns to the Tillicum gymnasium this evening to oppose Lou Plummer, former Notre Dame football star, in the semi-windup of the weekly mat programme. Dr. Karl Sarpolis, St. Louis chiropractor, and Tiger Daula, dusky East Indian, two of the leading contenders for the championship, will meet in the main event. Bing Quong, Chinese grappler, and Bill Steen, local exponent of the mat game, will clash in the opening bout at 8:45 o'clock.

SIDNEY NINE BEATS TIGERS

Chalks Up 2-1 Triumph in Fast Softball Fixture—Other Results

With Ray Byers besting Tommy Johnston in seven-hit pitchers' duel, Sidney eked out a 2-1 victory over the Tigers, yesterday evening at Memorial Park, in one of the fastest softball games of the season.

Sidney	200 000 000—2

Batteries — Byers and Eckert; Johnston and Harris.

DRAWN GAME

Driving across two runs in a ninth-inning attack, Navy "A" battled Painter's Bruins to an 11-11 tie in a fixture at Admirals Road. Trailing until the final frame, the sailors scored four runs in the seventh inning to come within two of their opponents' total, and then tied up the ball game in the ninth.

Score by innings:

Painter's Bruins	031 103 300—11
Navy	101 201 402—11

TEN-INNING BATTLE

Pushing across the winning run in the tenth inning, Hollywood Club eked out a 3-2 victory over North Saanich Service Club nine, at Victoria West Park.

Playing on their home grounds, Saanichton defeated the visiting Togo Cleaners, 9-3. The feature of the game was the sparkling fielding of the Saanichton fly chasers in the outer gardens.

"D" SECTION

In a "D" Section fixture at Victoria West Park, Mets came through with an 8-4 triumph over the Colbert Grocery squad.

Hunter to Ride Stand Pat Today At Detroit Track

TORONTO, May 29 (CP). — Jimmy Hunter, young Victoria jockey, will be in the saddle when E. F. Seagram's Stand Pat goes to the post in Detroit tomorrow for the $5,000 added Col. Alger Memorial Handicap. C. McTague, scheduled to ride the Toronto-owned favorite, was injured at Woodbine track here today when kicked by Royal Vintage, following a race.

McTague was kicked just above the thigh, a deep flesh wound being inflicted. As soon as it was learned McTague would be unable to go to Detroit to ride Stand Pat, which won the first running of the Alger Memorial last year, stable officials decided the Victoria boy was the one for the job.

TWO CHAMPIONS TO CLASH FOR HONORS ON SCOTTISH LINKS

Holders of the Australian and Scottish Amateur Crowns Will Meet Today Over Thirty-Six Holes For Possession of Title Vacated by Lawson Little—Tolley Beaten in Quarter-Finals

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, May 29 (CP). — Hector Thomson, the Scottish champion from Machrihanish, and Jimmy Ferrier, Australian title-holder, will go out among the yawning traps and awesome bunkers of the Royal and Ancient links tomorrow to duel for one of golfdom's most coveted prizes, the British amateur championship.

These two national titleholders earned the right to meet in the thirty-six-hole final by progressing victoriously through two eighteen-hole rounds today against opponents tested by a week of stiff competition. The golf they shot pointed to a grueling struggle in the final before the successor of California's Lawson Little is decided. Little turned professional a few weeks ago.

Thomson, on his record through the tourney, is a superior golfer and is favored to win. Also, he will have a great gallery of his "ain folk" cheering him on.

TOLLEY ELIMINATED

The Scot advanced today by defeating Gordon Peters, 2 and 1, in the quarter-finals and Cecil Ewing, an Irish star, 4 and 3, this afternoon. The broad-shouldered Ferrier, who plays a bold, courageous game, beat Morton Dykes, 3 and 2, in the morning and G. Alec Hill, one up, in the semi-finals. Hill had beaten old Cyril Tolley, the 1920 and '29 champion, at the nineteenth hole in the morning.

When the first shot was fired from the first tee this morning it appeared it would be a sorry day for Thomson. He scrambled like the dourest dub to take a six. On the second his drive trickled an ignominious fifty yards. Heavy were the many Scottish hearts in the silent gallery for although Peters, too, is a Scotsman, the steady-going Hector had seemed the better native bet for the title since the title play opened.

Two down, Thomson proved his nerve by collecting himself and shooting the next seven holes in twenty nine. By the twelfth hole he had squared the match. He took this one when Peters picked up after a bad tee shot, and fired a birdie three on the thirteenth for another win. He was bunkered on the next for a loss, but birdied the sixteenth and halved the seventeenth to win the match.

FERRIER PUTTS WELL

Ferrier was putting like a machine in the morning and made the turn three up on Dykes. He ended the match on the sixteenth with a brilliant recovery from back of the green for a half in 4's.

Rain made conditions bad for the semi-finals. Ewing's spectacles kept clouding up when he needed all of his resources against the determined Thomson.

The Irishman went down on the first hole, where his second caught a creek. He fired shot for shot with the favorite until the ninth but could not match the Scot's birdie three there and Thomson turned two up. Ewing muffed his tee shot on the tenth, put his second in a bunker and Hector was three up. The Irish hope drove into the rough on the thirteenth for another loss. They halved the next two and the match was over.

In the other semi-final, Ferrier three-putted the sixth to go one down and Hill held him there until the turn. The burly Aussie squared the match on the tenth by dropping a fifteen-foot putt. The next two were halved.

FORGES TO FRONT

Then Ferrier forged to the front with a sensational drive. His terrific drive stopped a yard from the pin and he dropped it for an eagle two. Hill had the disheartening experience of losing the hole with a birdie three.

But Hill came back on the next with a deadly approach for a four against Ferrier's five, and the count was even again. The next two were halved.

THIRTY-THREE WILL RACE AT INDIANAPOLIS

Death-Defying Racers to Compete in Annual 500-Mile Event Today

INDIANAPOLIS, May 29 (AP).—The nerveless men who make their living in the death-challenging game of automobile racing are ready again for the annual $100,000 500-mile classic to be run here tomorrow before an expected crowd of 150,000.

Promptly at 10 a.m., C.S.T., thirty-three of them, each with a mechanic riding beside him, will start on their hazardous way, with 800 sharp turns to make before the finish.

Death has ridden the speedway annually for years, usually striking in those four turns of the two-and-one-half-mile course as the drivers barrel into them at better than 100 miles per hour. Its presence, however, never has daunted the helmeted and goggled men of the roaring road.

THOUSANDS TO ATTEND

Many of the drivers believe that with the fair, cool weather which is forecast, the record of 106.240 miles per hour set by Kelly Petillo last year will be bettered. Tomorrow's field is the fastest in history.

Three former winners — Louis Meyer, of Huntington Park, Calif.; "Wild Bill" Cummings of Indianapolis, and Fred Frame, of Los Angeles — are in the field. Meyer will try for his third victory here, something never accomplished in the twenty-three years the race has been run.

MOORE GAINS IN BAT RACE

Phillies Heavy-Hitting Outfielder Joins Select Batting Group

By The Associated Press

Johnny Moore, the Phillies' slugging outfielder, moved into the "Big Six" in major league batting yesterday by getting four hits out of five times at bat, boosting his average fourteen points to 368, and displacing Baxter Jordan, of the Boston Bees, among the National League hitters. With three of the leading half-dozen idle, the only other noticeable change in the pace-setting line-up was an increase of eight points in Bill Terry's average, through a check-up which gave him one less time at bat and an average of 439.

The standings:

	G	AB	R	H	Pct
Terry, Giants	22	57	10	25	439
Sullivan, Indians	25	83	11	35	422
Lewis, Senators	36	159	25	61	384

BOX LACROSSE TO START AT DUNCAN

DUNCAN, May 29.—The latest sporting activity to arouse enthusiasm in the Cowichan district is box lacrosse and lacrosse talk and sticks are much in evidence. A club has been formed in Duncan with Dave Cochrane as president; T. Bone, vice-president; R. W. Whidden and R. N. Staples, joint secretary-treasurers, and A. R. Haines, Greig Young and J. L. Maitland, committee. Schools are practising regularly and a school league will shortly be formed. Senior players are having their first match against Nanaimo on Wednesday, June 10, at the Tennis Club Grounds, when the game will be officially launched, with Hugh Savage, M.P.P., tossing the first ball. A number of former lacrosse players have been unearthed and the services of an expert coach are being negotiated for.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT - - - - - - By Ripley

EXPLANATION FOR YESTERDAY'S RIPLEY CARTOON

Boats and Ships—By the popular usage the word "boat" has come to mean any craft afloat, but the term is used incorrectly. In the strictest sense, "boat" refers only to small craft such as a rowboat, lifeboat, launch, etc., propelled by oars. In the course of time, both popularly and legally, the term "ship" has acquired a wide interpretation. Broadly stated, for purposes of international maritime law and by the Merchant Shipping Acts of Great Britain (1854, 1894 and 1906) the term "ship" includes every description of vessel used in navigation not propelled by oars.

AUSTRALIA AND U.S. NET TEAMS TO MEET TODAY

Adrian Quist to Face Allison in Opening Fixture

Anzac Champion to Clash With American Titleholder and Crawford Will Meet Don Budge at Philadelphia—Mako to Team With Budge In Doubles Against Crawford and Quist

PHILADELPHIA, May 29 (AP).—A wafer-like edge that may develop into a decided advantage, fell to Australia today as battle lines were drawn for the Davis Cup tennis series between Australia and the United States.

The luck of the draw in the five-match series, which will earn the triumphant team a berth in the interzone final at Wimbledon in July, against the winner of the European zone, will send the Anzac champion, Adrian Quist, against the United States titleholder, Wilmer Allison, in the opening encounter on the Germantown Cricket Club's centre court tomorrow at 2:30 p.m., E.D.T. Red-headed Donald Budge, of Oakland, Cal., will oppose the veteran Australian team captain, Jack Crawford, in the other singles contest. The players will swap opponents for the concluding singles on Monday, with Allison meeting Crawford and Budge taking the court against Quist.

DOUBLES DRAWN

Although neither team was required to do so until tomorrow afternoon, non-playing captain Walter Pate, of the American team, agreed to Crawford's suggestion and the pairings for the doubles match scheduled for Sunday were drawn. Budge and Gene Mako, of Los Angeles, were pitted against Crawford and Quist.

Before the draw, the series was regarded as 50-50 proposition, but the Allison-Quist development made Australia generally a 5 to 4 favorite.

On form shown to date the thirty-one-year-old Allison is the weaker of the United States singles players, while Quist, on the other hand, seems to be holding the peak which carried him through a series of sensational triumphs over Crawford at home.

SEATTLE TEAM TO PLAY HERE

Sound City Cricketers Will Oppose Victoria Eleven In League Match

Making their season's debut, the Sound City eleven will oppose the Victoria Cricket Club on the well-kept Macdonald Park pitch. The visitors are reported to be carrying a strong team, and Capt. H. A. "Gliddy" Goward, of the local side, is anticipating a good match.

Mrs. H. A. Goward will be in charge of the tea arrangements for the afternoon. Play will commence at 2:15 o'clock.

Albions and the league-leading Incogs will meet at Beacon Hill Park in what gives promise of being an interesting match. The former eleven opened their league competition last week with an impressive triumph over the Victoria West Club, while the latter squad has two victories to its credit in as many starts.

PLAY COWICHAN

Five C's will journey to Cowichan to meet the home side in the third match on the day's programme. The locals will make the trip with a strong team and hope to return in the evening with a win.

The teams:

Victoria—H. A. Goward, captain; C. Jones, G. H. Kinch, G. C. Grant, H. A Tomalin, P. Austin, G. Wilkinson, W. J. Moffatt, J. R. Appleton A. J. Darcus and T. Peers.

Albions—W. E. Knox, captain; N. Pite, E. D. Freeman, N. Smith, F. Maurice, L. Gibbons, G. Walton, S. Baker, A. Baker, Don Pite and V. G. Pritchard.

RED WINGS WIN HOCKEY HONORS

Defeat Wimpy's Capitals, 1-0, in Final Playdowns for City Championship

Clem Pellitt's goal, twelve minutes after the start of the final period, gave the Red Wings a 1-0 victory over Wimpy's Capitals yesterday evening in the final game of the Royal Juvenile Athletic Association Roller Hockey League playdowns.

The triumph gave the Wings possession of the Tommy Rickinson Cup, symbolic of the championship, for the next twelve months. Bill Pynn, president of the Royal Juvenile Athletic Association, made the presentation for the donor.

The teams:

Wimpy's Capitals—Jury, Wilson, W. Stewart, R. Cosier, N. Sage, K. Ludbrook, W. Roe and J. Drummond.

Saanich Eleven To Play Nanaimo Squad Tomorrow

Champions of the Saanich and District Football League, Pitzer & Nex soccer eleven will journey to Nanaimo tomorrow to meet the Brechin Athletic Club in an exhibition fixture. The match will commence at 2 o'clock. The Up-Islanders have a well-balanced team and should provide stiff opposition for the suburban titleholders.

ANNUAL FIXTURE SET FOR JUNE 6

With prospects of two strong teams being lined up, the annual president vs. captain's match will take place at the Victoria Golf Club on Saturday, June 6, it was announced yesterday. The match will be eighteen holes and will be played in foursomes, with the best ball counting. A dinner will be held in the clubhouse, after the battle, at 6:30. Entries will close at 3 o'clock on Thursday next, when the draw will be made. Members desiring to play are asked to communicate with the secretary or professional.

GOOD TROUT FISHING REPORTED AT THETIS

Thetis Lake may come into its own again as a trout fishing paradise judging by the favorable reports from anglers who have taken the fish there recently. Fred Saunders landed three fine Kamloops trout, averaging a pound in weight, on a spinner and worm.

LOVELY ROSA HEADS FIELD

Sir Abe Bailey's Horse Wins 158th Renewal of the Oaks at Epsom

EPSOM DOWNS, England, May 29 (CP).—Running a beautiful race, Sir Abe Bailey's Lovely Rosa won the 158th renewal of the Oaks today, defeating Sir Frederick Eley's Barrowby Gem by three-quarters of a length in the season's second classic for three-year-old fillies, run over the Derby course. His Majesty's Feola, running under the colors of Lord Derby due to the court mourning, was third.

The race proved a complete upset. Lovely Rosa and Barrowby Gem were the two most unconsidered runners in the field of twenty-two. Both were trained at the Lambourn stable in Berkshire, the former by Cottrill, the latter by Templeman. Both had won only one race in their career and neither finished in the first ten in the One Thousand Guineas at Newmarket, the first of the classics for fillies.

Lovely Rosa was practically unbacked and started at thirty-three to one. In the totalisator a two-shilling (fifty-cent) ticket returned £9 16s 9d (nearly $50) to win and £2 5s 6d (about $11) to place.

Lord Astor's Traffic Light was fourth.

Lord Derby's Tide-Way, who started a three to one favorite, finished eighth, and Esmond Harmsworth's Silver Birch, the 100 to 30 second favorite was fifth. The time was 2:36.

Ardmore Golfers Gain Close Win

SIDNEY, May 29.—Playing on their home course, Ardmore Golf Club's fair sex team captured a close victory from the visiting Cowichan Club by a lone point, the final score being 15½ to 14½.

Trophy Shoot Is Carded Tomorrow

One of the feature team shoots of the season, the Gordy Trophy match, will be held this afternoon at Heals Rifle Range. Riflemen from the Garrison, 16th Canadian Scottish Regiment and the 5th B.C. Coast Brigade (C.G.A.), will fire in the competition.

The monthly "green" shoot event staged for the purpose of encouraging young marksmen, will also be held.

PERRY MOVES INTO SEMIS

English Star Captures Match From Boris Maneff In French Tennis

PARIS, May 29 (AP).—Fred Perry and Christian Boussus moved into the semi-finals of the French hard-court tennis championships today, but it was twenty-year-old Boris Maneff, Bulgar-Swiss, who caught the crowd's eye.

A virtual unknown in international tennis before entering this tournament, Maneff gave Perry many an anxious moment before the defending champion could gain his place in the last four.

Uncovering a series of hard forehand drives and a fast-breaking service, Maneff gave the British Davis Cup ace a good battle before Perry could win at 9-7, 6-3, 4-6, 6-3.

Andre Merlin, seeking to gain a place on the French Davis Cup team, carried his compatriot, Boussus, to five sets before bowing 1-6, 6-3, 7-5, 1-6, 6-1.

Boussus and Perry will meet in the semi-finals. The other semi-finalists will be determined tomorrow after Gottfried von Cramm, of Germany, has played Bernard Destremeau, of France, and "Bunny" Austin, of England, has encountered Marcel Bernard, of France.

FINANCE - COMMERCE - MARKETS

Stock and Bond Prices Firm at New York Mart

NEW YORK, May 29 (AP).—The stock market made haste slowly today, but succeeded in entrenching itself in higher territory.

While general gains were confined to fractions, many steels and specialties climbed 1 to 3 or more points.

Brokers were much encouraged by the action of the list in a pre-holiday session. With the markets closed tomorrow for memorial observances, many commission-house customers remained away from Wall Street.

The Associated Press average of sixty stocks was up .4 of a point to 61.9, more than recovering yesterday's decline. Transfers totaled 740,410 shares compared with 762,610 Thursday.

Buying in the steels apparently reflected optimism over informal statements of leaders at yesterday's American Iron and Steel Institute meeting that the outlook for the industry was the best in five years.

Firmness marked all departments of the corporate bond market with increased activity in the low-yield group the principal feature.

Most carrier liens moved fractionally higher. In the foreign list there were more losers than gainers.

WHEAT PRICES ADVANCE AGAIN

Futures Make Fractional Gains at Winnipeg—Crop Outlook Uncertain

WINNIPEG, May 29 (CP).—A burning sun over the Prairies made the outlook for Western Canada's new wheat crop decidedly uncertain today, and the price of futures on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange rose 1-8 to 5-8 cent a bushel as a result.

Though last-minute profit-taking pared the day's extreme gains of more than a cent, the close was strong with the May option at 75 5-8, July 76 1-8, and October 77 1-4 cents.

SENIOR GOLDS ARE STRONGEST

Five to Twenty-Cent Gains Scored by Secondary Issues At Toronto

TORONTO, May 29 (CP).—Senior gold issues displayed the strongest front at today's mining section market. Secondary golds also recovered lost ground.

Dome sold up to 60 for a gain of 2 points. Lakeshore added 3-8 at 59 3-8. McIntyre firmed 1 5-8 and Hollinger 1-2 to 15 7-8.

Highlights of the secondary group were gains of 10 to 20 cents for Red Lake, Gold Shore, Bralorne and Hard Rock. Issues up 5 to 9 cents included Siscoe, O'Brien and Kirkland Lake.

GOLDS STRONG AT VANCOUVER

Bralorne Leads Advance—Base Metals Quiet and Oils Close Lower

VANCOUVER, May 29 (CP).—Interest centred chiefly in the gold section on the Vancouver Stock Exchange today with some substantial gains chalked up. Oil issues lost some of the heavy gains marked up on yesterday's session. Transactions totaled 305,448 shares.

Bralorne led the golds up 35 at 7.80. Pioneer was up 15 at 9.40, Vidette 5 at 1.30 and Big Missouri 4 at 62. Cariboo Gold Quartz 1.44; Viking at 5 1-2 and Relief Arlington at 26 each added 1 cent. Island Mountain lost 6 at 1.50, while Premier at 2.38 and Minto at 65 each dropped a point. Other gold issues were unchanged to fractionally higher.

Base metals were quiet. B.C. Nickel was up 1-2 at 30 1-2, and Noble Five was steady at 2 3-4. Pend Oreille eased 2 at 78, and Golconda 1 at 12.

In the oils, Home was down 9 at 1.08 and Ranchmen's 8 at 50. Dalhousie at 42 and Calgary & Edmonton at 1.01 both lost 6 cents. Nordon eased 2 1-2 at 15 and A.P. Consolidated a fraction at 15.

Utility Stocks Lead Fractional Upswing At Eastern Markets

MONTREAL, May 29 (CP).—Utilities set the pace for Montreal Stock Exchange listings today and advances were general though fractional in most cases.

Bell Telephone was at the head of the utility list with a one-point advance, while B.C. Power was up from 1-8 to 1-2. Noranda advanced 3-8, while Hollinger gained 5-8 to 16, and Nickel 3-4 to 47.

St. Lawrence Corporation preferred held a point advance but St. Lawrence Paper dropped, while Bathurst was unchanged and St. Lawrence Corporation even.

TORONTO EXCHANGE

TORONTO, May 29 (CP).—Weakness of oils stood out in today's session of the Toronto industrial share market. Other groups were firm with volume at 18,800 shares.

International Petroleum eased 3-4 to 36 1-4; Imperial slipped 1-2 to 21 1-8, and Thayers preferred a point.

A final display of firmness was reflected in International Nickel, up 1-2, and fraction gains in C.P.R., Ford "A" and Brazilian. Canadian Car & Foundry preferred gained 1 7-8 at 15 1-8.

Food and Canada Packer stocks closed on the upside. Western Canada Flour added 3 points.

WHAT'S DOING ON THE LOCAL RETAIL PRODUCE MARKET

Strawberries were off in price slightly yesterday to two boxes for thirty-five cents. Wholesalers said increased production was responsible for the decline.

No. 2 tomatoes took a small decline in price on the wholesale market yesterday, but the effect will be practically neglibible on the retail market.

Local bunch beets were reported to be holding the market, and further shipments from California will be discontinued. However, further shipments of seasonable California vegetables will arrive at regular intervals.

With the navel crop of oranges nearly through, wholesalers were preparing yesterday to receive the first shipment this season of Valencia oranges. There will be little or no change in the price of oranges, it was said.

Butter and egg prices remained unchanged.

QUATSINO HAS DAY OF SPORT

May Queen Is Crowned With Due Ceremony—Athletic Events Follow

QUATSINO, May 26 (By Mail).—On Saturday, May 23, Quatsino celebrated in true May Day spirit, with a large programme of school sports, a ball game and May Queen's coronation.

The outstanding event of the day was the crowning of the May Queen, Birdie Perrie, fifteen-year-old daughter of Captain and Mrs. B. D. Perrie. The queen was attended by a maid-of-honor, Gladys Jackson, two flower girls, Helen McCaughy and Jeanette Nosler, and the ten Maypole dancers.

A procession of all the participants around the sports field was led by the herald, Robert Wadey, dressed in scarlet costume; following him was last year's queen, Blanche Sullivan, then the two flower girls and the present queen, who in turn was followed by the maid of honor and the dancers. After the procession reached the throne, last year's queen crowned Birdie Queen of the May for 1936. Following the crowning the ten dancers, five boys and five girls, went through their paces around the Maypole.

The predominant figure in the boys' sports was W. "Bill" Howick, a long-legged youngster who placed first in every event he entered. In the first event of the day, the mile road race, the first three places were captured by three brothers, Bill, Jack and Andy Howick. The 100-yard race, the high and broad jumps all were won by Bill Howick.

In the afternoon ball game, Quatsino's inexperienced players were badly trounced by the much more experienced Port Alice players.

The largest crowd for some years attended the dance held in the evening. Besides the usual number from Quatsino there was a large attendance from Port Alice, and also many people from Holberg and Coal Harbor.

The man had an important engagement to keep, and consequently was greatly annoyed at the slow movements of the barber who was shaving him.

"Keep the brush still," he said at last in exasperation. "I'll waggle my head!"

TOONERVILLE FOLKS

THE TUTTS... By Crawford Young

TELEPHONE CALL By GLUYAS WILLIAMS

How It Started

By JEAN NEWTON

"SMOOTH AS OIL"

In point of years the phrase "smooth as oil" is as about as old as any, and older than most in the English language.

A Chicago survey shows that 32 per cent of the husbands of that city help their wives wash the dishes. A New York survey reveals that only 30 per cent lend such assistance.

Jane Dixon Says:

IT SEEMS INCREDIBLE THAT A WOMAN BORN WITH GENTILITY CAN DESCEND TO THE LEVEL OF THE BEAST WHICH THINKS OF SELF ONLY

It seems incredible that a woman, born with gentility, with a heart attuned to mother humanity, can descend to the level of the beast which thinks of self only.

My dog wolfs his food. He growls at any other pup who comes near his food pan while he's wolfing.

My dog doesn't know whether the stray pup is hungry or not. He doesn't bother to ask. He can't ask. He's just a beastie.

He knows hunger, but God has not given him the light which allows him to know the joy of sharing his food with hungry comrades.

But a human being who has the knowledge and the light, and yet behaves like the beasts of the field and the forest—what then?

Dear Jane Dixon—Four years ago my son married a girl nine years his junior.

She hated me, but my son hoped she would be friendly after their marriage.

The boy was my only support.

I'm fifty-one, a widow, and at the time of the marriage had a second son seventeen, just out of school.

MOTHER INJURED IN FALL

Once they were married, my elder son's wife told him that if he so much as looked at me she would leave him.

I tried to understand. I advised him that if he loved his wife so much he should go his way and forget me. I didn't want to spoil his happiness.

Then the bad times came along. No work for my young son. We sold our furniture, took two furnished rooms.

Misfortune never comes in dribs, does it? It hits us in great big waves.

I had a bad fall, so that now I have the use of only one hand.

My son and his wife (the elder married one), were made to provide two furnished rooms for $3.50 a week, the rent to be paid by my younger son. My room was free.

From $7.50 a week wages my younger son has been paying the $3.50 stipulated by the court. After a year of this the elder son's wife wants us out of her house.

A CASE FOR THE COURTS

I became ill last Fall; now I go to the hospital for tuberculosis treatment, due mostly to lack of food. I weigh ninety-four pounds.

I hate to stand up in court and see my first-born fighting against giving me $1.50 a week. I'm afraid he will hate me for it.

I can't stand the way we are living any longer. The elder son and his wife have no children, but they have a lovely home. He has worked nine years in one place. My young son has no work. He is unable to find work. Often we are hungry. We must pay $3.50 a week or we'll be put out. The son's wife would turn off the gas, slam doors, lock the kitchen so we can't do our laundry or cooking. My illness is progressive. What can I do?—Mrs. L. E.

Answer—Take your problem to court today. Your son's wife, as you describe her, is contemptible.

Have no hesitancy about taking your case to a court of justice. Your son's wife has her home and her husband because of you. Her conduct is reflected in the attitude of your son, and you owe it to him to spread her despicability on the public record.

GARDEN PARTY TO VISIT CITY

Club Members and Magazine Editors Coming Here From California

Victoria, known widely for its beautiful gardens, will be visited during the first week in June by a large party of gardeners from around Pasadena, including Mrs. Leonard B. Slossom, regional vice-president of the National Council of State Garden Clubs, Incorporated, which includes 600 horticultural organizations in California alone, with a membership of over 6,000.

Several editors of garden magazines and newspaper garden sections are expected to accompany the party. Clyde Hurley, garden editor of The Pasadena Star-News, is definitely coming, while Norvell Gillespie, garden editor of The Sunset Magazine, may also be in the party.

LENGTHY PROGRAMME

A lengthy programme of visits to gardens, parks, teas and talks, has been arranged by Mrs. Gwen Cash, press representative of the Empress Hotel, who organized the tour.

The party will arrive here Monday, and will have tea at "Gonzales," garden of Mrs. Will Pemberton, 595 Foul Bay Road.

On Tuesday, the Californians may visit "Duvals," home of Senator G. H. Bernard; "Cavignol," home of W. Hobart Molson; "Rosedene," home of Mrs. W. C. Nicol, and the gardens of Alan B. Morkill and Arthur H. Bennett. They will have tea at the home of Mrs. Biggerstaff Wilson, 1770 Rockland Avenue.

INTERESTING TALKS

In the evening, lectures will be given at the Empress Hotel. Dr. William Newton, head of the Dominion Laboratory of Plant Pathology at Saanichton, will speak on his trip to England, and A. H. Bennett will talk on the Lohbrunners' expedition in search of the flora of the Arctic.

A trip to the Dominion Experimental Station, Saanichton, and tea there has been arranged for Wednesday, and while en route the visitors will visit "Strangewood," garden of Col. S. L. McMullen, Gordon Head. In the evening, Fred Saunders, head gardener at the Empress Hotel, will give a talk on chrysanthemums.

Thursday, the Californians are invited by the Rock Garden Society of Victoria to tea at the clubrooms in the Beach Hotel. That afternoon they will visit the gardens of Mrs. C. J. Coultas, 237 King George; Mrs. Hugo Beaven, 1176 Beach Drive, and Mrs. Gordon F. Hepburn, 1420 Beach Drive.

OTHER ADDRESSES

As a variation to gardening, Dr. Ian McTaggart will speak on "The Totem Pole Indians of British Columbia" in the evening.

On Friday afternoon, the visitors will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Butchart, and will view their famous gardens.

In the evening, John A. Grant, rock garden specialist, will speak on the making of rock gardens.

There will be a floral tea at the Empress Hotel on Saturday.

Other gardens that will be opened during the week, mornings only, will be Government House, 1401 Rockland Avenue; 305 Denison Road, Gonzales Hill, owned by Comte de Suzannet; "Queenswood," Arbutus Road, owned by Col. A. A. Sharland, and the garden of J. Waddell, on Seaview Road, Ten Mile Point.

It is hoped that this tour of gardens to Victoria will become an annual event.

VANCOUVER ISLAND DEVELOPMENT BEST

standpoint, Vancouver Island occupied a unique position in Canada, with unrivalled opportunities for the future. What was required was aggressive development of natural resources, encouragement of shipping, and a definite plan of road improvement so that tourists would come.

In the Saanich Peninsula, Dr. Tolmie continued, Victoria had at its door an asset capable of intense development, with room for a population many times its present size, securely placed in productive endeavor on the land. Grain, fruits, seeds, cut flowers and bulbs could be produced in competition with any market, given reasonable protection in initial stages.

DEVELOPED HINTERLAND

With but few of the equivalent advantages, Vancouver had developed its hinterland and grown in consequence. With its timber, fisheries and scenic assets, Vancouver Island could occupy a position of paramount importance in the province. What meant wise and sane development for Vancouver Island would also be prosperity for Victoria, directly related commercially and otherwise with the Island as a whole.

"If we really mean to get our share of the tourist industry we must have good roads. United States highways link with ours, but tourists will not come if our roads are left in their present shape. This is a matter of prime importance to us on Vancouver Island. They have Federal highways across the border, and I am sure that if the matter were put up to the Dominion in a reasonable way, we would receive the assistance we need to open up the country properly," Dr. Tolmie declared.

ON THE MEND

"Conditions in Canada are improving. We realize now that the pit of the depression was passed in 1932, and that since then, things have been steadily on the mend; but we have got to help ourselves, and work with the tools that are before us.

"There is a disposition on the part of Liberal Governments to take the credit for the improvement in business conditions; but it is absurd to think that a one-sided thirty-six hour treaty with the United States, and the greatest boost in the sales tax this country has ever known, have been solely responsible for that improvement.

"As a matter of fact, I believe the people are tired of strictly political manoeuvring and that they want their Governments to get on with the business of the country." (Applause). "Let me say right now I have no criticism to offer of my opponents in this by-election. So far as I am concerned, they are both 100 per cent good. I propose to stick to the issues in the contest, and not the men, though I reserve the right to disagree with them at a good many points," Dr. Tolmie said with a chuckle.

PLUMS ARE SCARCE

"I have heard it said you must send a Liberal to Ottawa if you want a Federal building here. Now, if they are looking for Liberal plums with a budget deficit of $162,000,000 this year, I predict they will be difficult to obtain. It is something of an insult to Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King to suggest he would stoop to ward politics. Forty constituencies in Parliament are not represented by Liberals, and have they been cut off? For that matter, Mr. Pattullo secured some $9,000,000 from Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett at Ottawa, and no one will suggest Mr. Pattullo is a Conservative.

"Our friends on the left and near-left are placing before you fine economic theories and many beautiful words; but I suggest there are no short cuts to prosperity, or if there were, the world would have found them out a great long time ago. In Hyde Park, London, they give their theorists a soap-box, and let them blow off the steam. There is a great large piece of sky over Hyde Park, and I notice they have not really dented it yet.

MADE IN HASTE

"Time has been too short to appraise the acts of the King Government. We will know more about that when we see how the reciprocal trade agreement with the United States works out. It may be a one-way street and it may not, but we will soon find out. I have had some experience on tariff commissions, and I know you cannot dig very deeply inside thirty-six hours.

"There are ordinary tariffs, seasonal tariffs and many other considerations in a country's business, and may I suggest that it would not be to the disadvantage of Victoria to send a man to Ottawa who has had some little experience with these matters," Dr. Tolmie said, in conclusion.

Socialist movements in Canada had about worn out their welcome, Gordon A. Cameron declared. Canadians were basically too sound to be deluded long with that type of argument, and had witnessed the chaos of somewhat similar experiments in Alberta. Victorians should see to it that they were represented by a man who new Federal and Provincial affairs, and not by a stranger without knowledge of roots in the city, he said, in conclusion.

A CHALLENGE

With a candidate with the statesmanlike qualities of Dr. Tolmie, little argument was required, said R. D. Harvey in turn. National issues had been settled in the general election, and Victoria had now the opportunity created by a hurried-up poll to elect a man who would not need to go through the painful initiation of maiden speeches from back benches. The Liberal candidate had not been the first choice of his party, if the second; and he would challenge him to say now that he would secure Mackenzie King's pledge that Victoria's advancement did not rest on political bribery and threats of withholding due recognition if anyone but a Liberal were elected.

Brigadier Brown introduced the speakers, all of whom received a cordial hearing.

GOLF FACTS NOT THEORIES

By ALEX MORRISON

A club official who generally plays in the 70's recently lost a match to a player who seldom breaks 90. The outcome of the match was decided in the bunkers.

On the course where the game was played the bunkers have sides with a very gradual slope. This sloping side permits a player to roll the ball out of the sand, a habit which many high scorers have formed. During the match in mention the 90 shooter used his putter regularly and successfully out of the bunkers. The par shooter was so upset by his opponent's practice that he missed such bunker shots as he had to play, causing his score to mount.

However, he isn't going to suffer defeat at the hands of the putter champion much longer, for the bunkers on this particular course are to be remodelled. The sloping sides will be replaced with overhanging edges and there will be no chance to roll the ball on to the green. It will have to be pitched there with the proper club and swing, or else! After all, you can't expect all golf courses to be built for putters only.

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

If you should meet with Mr. Toad,
You would scarce would give him half the road.
I wonder if you'd be more fair
If you should meet with Buster Bear?

Probably you would. Indeed, I suspect that you would give him all the road. And the funny part is that it is quite likely that Buster would be quite as polite and would give you all the road. The fact is that, big as he is and strong as he is and fierce as he looks, Buster Bear is very shy and bashful. Little as Old Mr. Toad is he would hardly more than hop out of the way of your feet, while big as Mr. Bear is he wouldn't even let you see him if he saw you first.

That is one difference between Old Mr. Toad and Buster Bear, and, of course, as you know, there are a great many other differences. But in one thing they are very much alike. Yes, sir, Old Mr. Toad and Buster Bear are very much alike in one thing. Can you guess what it is? Well, it is in their fondness for ants. Old Mr. Toad is just as fond of ants as Jimmy Skunk is of fat beetles. So is Buster Bear, and that is how it happened that Buster Bear came to invite Old Mr. Toad to dine with him.

Buster had that lonesome feeling again and was wishing he had someone to talk to him when just ahead of him he saw Old Mr. Toad watching something very intently. Every once in a while he would lean forward, run his long tongue out like a flash, and then smack his lips as if something tasted oh, so good! He was so busy with what he was doing that he didn't see Buster Bear and he didn't hear him. You know Buster, big as he is, can walk without making the teeniest, weeniest sound. Buster tip-toed a little bit nearer until he could see just what Old Mr. Toad was doing. He was watching a little ant hill and snapping up every ant that came along. Buster nodded his head approvingly.

"I'm glad to see that you have such good taste, Mr. Toad," said he in his deep, grumbly-rumbly voice.

Old Mr. Toad gave a frightened little scream and fell right over on his back, kicking his legs feebly in the most foolish way. He looked so funny that Buster Bear just had to laugh. He couldn't help it. And because his laugh was grumbly-rumbly like his voice Old Mr. Toad was more frightened than ever.

He was watching a little ant hill and snapping up every ant that came along

"Seeing you eat makes me hungry, too," continued Buster. This sent cold shivers all over Mr. Toad, for he was sure that Buster meant to eat him.

"How would you like to dine with me today?" went on Buster, pretending not to notice how frightened Mr. Toad was. "It must be very slow work catching ants one at a time. What do you say to taking dinner with me?"

Old Mr. Toad struggled to find his voice, for he felt that he must be polite.

"I—I—I don't feel hungry any more," said he faintly. "I—I think if you will excuse me, Mr. Bear, I'll be moving along."

"Then I will go along with you," said Buster, who was just aching to have someone to talk to.

Poor Old Mr. Toad! This was too much for him. He didn't have strength enough to turn over and get on his feet again. He was sure now that Buster Bear meant to eat him when he got ready. Perhaps Buster would be better pleased if that invitation to dinner was accepted. It was of no use to even try to run away, and as for trying to hide under anything—why there was nothing to hide under that Buster Bear could not pull over and catch him.

"I—I've changed my mind; I'll be very pleased to dine with you, Mr. Bear," said Old Mr. Toad in a voice meant to sound very brave, but which was so faint that Buster Bear cocked his head on one side in order to hear better.

CHURCH TO MARK ITS ANNIVERSARY

Rev. F. V. Venables and Rev. F. L. Stephenson to Conduct St. Saviour's Services

St. Saviour's Church, Victoria West, will observe its forty-fifth anniversary tomorrow, being Whitsunday, and also on Monday.

On Sunday morning at 8 o'clock there will be a celebration of Holy Communion; at 11 o'clock, Matins and sermon, and at 7 p.m., Evensong and sermon.

Rev. F. V. Venables, new rector of the parish, with the assistance of Rev. F. L. Stephenson, will conduct the services.

W. C. Ellis, organist and choirmaster, has arranged suitable music to be sung by the choir.

On Monday evening at 8 o'clock a social will be held in the parish hall, when members of the congregation will bid farewell to Rev. E. M. Willis and welcome Rev. F. V. Venables to the parish. Refreshments will be served.

TRAINING CAMP TO START SOON

Fifty-Fifth Heavy Battery, 5th B.C. Coast Brigade, Has Room for Few More Men

The 55th Heavy Battery, 5th B.C. Coast Brigade, R.C.A., will go into camp at Fort Macaulay on July 5 for ten days, evenings only, it was announced yesterday.

Training is now under way at the Armories every Tuesday evening, and although the strength is almost complete, there is still an opportunity for six or eight young men of good physique and good habits, and between the ages of eighteen and twenty-five years.

Applications should be made to Capt. S. R. Bowden at the Armories on Tuesday evenings, or by telephoning him at Garden 1349.

The battery will attend the July 1 celebration in Vancouver, all expenses paid. Only members who have joined the unit before June 10 will be eligible to take part.

FISHING GROUNDS HERE ARE FINEST

W. C. Hill, Boston Businessman and Sportsman, Predicts Great Future for Island

"Vancouver Island has as fine fishing grounds as anywhere on the North American continent," was the high tribute paid at the Empress Hotel by Willard C. Hill, Boston businessman, who has fished the waters of North and South Atlantic, Florida, Gulf of Mexico and California. He is registered at the hotel with Mrs. Hill.

The Island's unspoiled country and well-stocked streams and bays will draw anglers from every part of the country, he predicted, just as soon as they are sufficiently informed.

At Brentwood Bay on Thursday he was delighted to hook a salmon weighing eighteen and one-quarter pounds. He laughed over his failure to land a twenty-pound button fish, but took a fisherman's oath that, after a trout-angling expedition to Qualicum Beach, he would return to Brentwood and stay until he had qualified, not only for a bronze, but a silver button.

On this his first visit to Victoria, Mr. Hill is enthralled with the natural beauty of the country and the charm of the city and its customs. The future of Vancouver Island as "one of the world's greatest playgrounds" is assured, in his opinion.

The old actor saw a friend ahead of him and was surprised to notice that he was carrying an apparently expensive box of cigars under his arm. Overtaking him, he slapped him on the shoulder and said, "I'm very glad to see you, old chap, especially as the last time we met you were down and out. But you look prosperous (pointing to the cigar box). Had a stroke of luck?"

No," whispered the other, "I'm moving again."

TOMORROW'S CHILD

by JULIE ANNE MOORE

CHAPTER XXVIII

When Val left Cran's hospital room Hugh told her that Cran's father wanted to talk with her in the reception-room. Hugh had remained in the corridor, but the former United States Senator called to him and insisted that he join them.

"You're Crandall's friend and you're Miss Clarke's friend and this concerns them both. And, frankly, I rather feel the need of a little moral support."

The elder Scott was an orator of distinction, but this was something entirely new in his experience. His son had told him, quite casually, some weeks ago that one of these days he was coming home with a bride, that her name was Valentine Clarke, that she lived in a New England town called New Machester and was one girl in a million. But then, of course, Crandall was very young and you didn't take a young man too seriously in these days and he had thought very little about it. Then, suddenly, Crandall had grown silent and sullen and there was no further reference to the charming New England girl and this, of course, was as it should be, for young love is a tempestuous thing at best and one "heart-break" follows another and"—so they grow up, my dear Miss Clarke, and life becomes something more than a succession of infatuations. A girl of your, cr—intelligence will understand that, I'm sure."

"But bless my soul," Cran's father continued earnestly, "I come here and find him critically hurt, and the first thing he asks me is 'Do you suppose she loves me enough to marry me, dad?' . . . Naturally, I told him it would hardly be fair to make a proposal of marriage under the cirmumstances, but I felt sure you would be willing to come to see him and cheer him up and——" He paused and his lips essayed a faint smile. "I'm afraid I've gone into a good deal more detail than I intended doing, but——" Another pause, looking at her gravely now, bending forward a little: "The boy happens to be all I have, Miss Clarke, and I am naturally more interested in his happiness than in anything else in the world. That's why I am presuming to ask you if—I mean to say, if Crandall should bring the subject up again and I could tell him, authoritatively——"

Val said in a small, troubled voice, "Cran asked me himself, Mr. Scott—a few minutes ago. Not in so many words, but I understood and he knew I understood." She watched Hugh splicing and unsplicing his fingers.

The elder Scott, looking at her with anxious eagerness. "The boy had the temerity," he demanded with feigned incredulity, "to ask you to—marry him?"

Val met his almost pleading gaze, nodded and said quickly, "I told him I would, of course." And in that instant when she saw Hugh looking at her and gravely nodding approval of what she had done, she knew with the certitude of perfect revelation that love, the only real love of a man she would ever know, had come to her in an impulsive kiss in the foyer of Kate's apartment weeks ago—and she had been too blind to see it.

• • •

Guy was not brought back to New York until Friday of the first week of January. During the previous ten days inquiries had poured into District Attorney Kellogg's office as to why he had sought Guy's arrest. Wishing to prevent a spectacle such as the morbidly curious can produce, Kellogg and the police agreed that nothing should be given out until after the funeral Sunday afternoon.

However, hardly had the sealed casket been received at the obscure side-street undertaking establishment when the truth leaked out. The late editions of that day carried the startling announcement, that at the time he met death in an airplane accident in Mexico, Guy Williams, New York playboy and heir to twenty-three millions, was sought for the murders of Leslie Crawford, Broadway idol, and his half-brother, Bret Gallishaw, the novelist . . ."

Hugh's old friend Kellogg phoned him that a simple service was to be held at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. "I don't know if you or any of your crowd are interested," Kellogg said "but I thought I'd let you know. By the way, I called his wife in Washington. Her mother took the call and gave me an awful tongue lashing. Said she didn't want to have her daughter's name mentioned in the same breath with Williams."

"I can blame her for giving me the old boy. I didn't make the match. What's she so fussy about, anyway? Marrying Williams made her daughter a twenty-three-million-dollar widow, didn't it?"

There were less than thirty persons present at the funeral service. Hugh, Kate and Val sat together, and although Val was constantly looking at Hugh out the corner of her eye, he gave no sign by which she could know he was even aware of her presence.

When they were leaving the chapel, Val suddenly touched Kate's shoulder and whispered, "I'll meet you outside in a minute. Take Hugh with you." A moment later she dropped into a chair beside a slim girl in a cheap cloth coat and a gaudy little hat with a nose-length veil. "Leeze . . . when did you come?"

"I came by plane about an hour ago. I'm in this rig to dodge reporters and photographers. Where can I see you, Val?"

Val had been about to give her Kate's address, but she suddenly asked, "Have you seen Cran?" And when Leeze shook her head, "I'll meet you at the hospital in half an hour. Afterwards we'll go to lunch somewhere."

The casket had not been moved. Val looked at it as she rose and turned her eyes to Leeze's again. Leeze merely shrugged. There was no sorrow for her, no regrets, no fragile memories to haunt her through these next months. Whatever it was about Guy that attracted her, it had died with him and now she was a twenty-three-million-dollar widow at an age when most girls are not yet married. What more for a girl of Leeze's peculiar temperament, could a girl ask?

• • •

Cran's rapid improvement was almost miraculous. For one full week he had hung suspended between life and death, and then overnight he had come out of the dark valley and begun to mend. The surgeons took the credit to themselves, but the head nurse who had watched the effect of Val's daily visits held a contrary opinion. Cran's father had gone back to Washington last evening—to return in a few days—with the positive assurance that his son was well out of danger. He and the head nurse shared the same theory.

"I've brought you a surprise, Cran," Val said as she entered his room. "You're to let her do most of the talking."

When Cran saw Leeze, he grinned and took a hand from under the cover and thrust it out at her. "Did you a dirty trick, didn't I, leaving you marooned on Christmas? But how was I to know some mug would come along and fill me full of lead?"

Leeze kissed him and her eyes filled with tears. She said gruffly, "You cut me out of Christmas dinner, you dope. Why didn't you tell me you were going to get yourself shot up?"

"What's happened to Guy?" Cran asked. "Not that I'm anxious to see him, but——"

Quickly Leeze said, "Guy's gone places. He hasn't been seen around these parts in over a week. . . . When do you expect to get out of this joint?"

"What's the hurry? I'm having a swell time."

Watching them, Val thought, "They get along, these two. They understood each other and they speak the same language. I don't belong to their world. We grew up differently." Just hearing them talk made her realize that Cran was never quite himself when he was with her. "I'm trying to be his kind, and he's trying to be my kind and neither of us is succeeding very well."

Later, when they were at lunch, Val said casually, "You and Cran always seemed to me ideally suited to each other."

Leeze nodded. "We were until Guy came along. Cran's a peach. I suppose I've always loved him a little—even after he went into a spin over you. . . . He'll never get over you, Val."

And then, because she saw in Leeze one last desperate hope, Val told her what had happened. . . . "That day when I went into his room I didn't know the answer myself, Leeze. But even if I had known, as I did a few minutes later, I couldn't have said 'No.' They thought Cran was dying. And now——" She broke off with a little shrug.

"He put you on the spot, didn't he? The big mope . . . But you can't go through with it."

"What else can I do?" Val asked, helplessly. "It isn't simply that I've promised—he's really in love with me, Leeze. I don't think you can understand what that means. I couldn't—until it happened to me."

"No . . ." Val shook her head slowly. "I'm engaged to Cran, but——" suddenly dropping her eyes—"I'm in love with a man who thinks I may be a nice girl when I grow up."

Her voice quivering with laughter, Leeze said, "Don't take it so seriously, Val. There's always a way out. I can't do anything about the man you want, probably, but I can find out what this thing is Cran calls love."

Leaving Val at the hospital after the funeral service, Hugh drove to the offices of Fleg & Ramsdell, Investigators. Fleg invariably held out hope of early results.

"I put another man on the case this morning, Mr. Malcolm," he announced cheerfully. "That makes three and they're all good men and they ain't missing any bets. If that kid's alive, we'll find him sooner or later. Keep your shirt on now and . . ."

Winifred herself opened the door. When Hugh stepped inside, she put her arms around his neck and kissed him. "I know," she said, "don't tell me. They're working day and night, but they haven't found Philippe." She slipped her arm through his and led the way to the sofa. "You're a darling to go through this every day . . . having to get the same old report, and then come and face me with it. . . . Don't get settled yet. Kate Hollister called and she wants you to call her back."

When Hugh got Kate on the phone she asked, "Have you any notion where Val is, Hugh?"

"She isn't. I called there but she and Leeze had left. They're probably having lunch somewhere. And it's very important. Val's Aunt Mahala has had a stroke or a heart attack or something and they want her to come at once. The message came from Robert Greeley."

Hugh groaned. "That girl has had nothing but trouble for months," he said. "How long does it keep up?"

Hugh said, "I don't suppose you could be more specific about that block-headed man. . . ." But Kate had hung up.

At the Theatres

ATLAS THEATRE Randolph Scott, fresh from dozens of outdoor pictures and more recently from his feature role as the young American football hero of R.K.O.'s "Roberta," brings a real red-blooded young he-man to R.K.O.-Radio's "Village Tale," now at the Atlas Theatre. Guinn "Big Boy" Williams lends considerable brawn, also.

COLUMBIA THEATRE Charming Martha Sleeper is not only a talented actress but is also a musician, dancer and costume designer. She plays the harp and piano. Miss Sleeper, featured in "Two Sinners," current attraction at the Columbia Theatre, would like to try her hand at interior decorating.

PLAZA THEATRE Rochelle Hudson, who has been on the Fox Film contract list for less than two years, moves into the position of a starring player at that studio with her role in "Way Down East," now showing at the Plaza Theatre. Miss Hudson is starred with Henry Fonda in this picturization of America's greatest melodrama.

CAPITOL THEATRE Dolores Costello Barrymore makes her return to the screen after four years' absence, sharing stellar honors with Freddie Bartholomew in Selznick International's "Little Lord Fauntleroy," now at the Capitol Theatre. The star, who has added her recently divorced husband's name to her own, plays "Dearest," the beautiful and adored young mother of Ceddie Errol.

DOMINION THEATRE "The Singing Kid," now at the Dominion Theatre, is a combination of hilarious comedy, heart-throbbing drama, mammoth spectacle and music. Besides Jolson and Miss Roberts, the cast includes Sybil Jason, Edward Everett Horton, Lyle Talbot, Allen Jenkins, Claire Dodd and Wini Shaw. The Yacht Club Boys and Cab Calloway and his band are also featured.

That Body of Yours

PREVENTING CHILDREN FROM BECOMING MENTAL PATIENTS

It is gratifying to see the different feeling now in the families and the friends of patients who enter mental hospitals, than was the case only a few years ago.

Today thinking people know that patients in mental hospitals have as much brains as the rest of us, but that just as the heart, liver, blood-vessels, or kidneys can have disturbances, so also can the brain and the nervous system.

It is now recognized everywhere that the only difference between mental patients and those of us outside these institutions is that they have difficulty getting along with other people or can't face their problems well enough to do themselves justice quite as well as we can.

This may be because their difficulties or worries are far beyond those we must face, or that they have a natural or inherited nervousness or shyness that magnifies difficulties or problems. There are, of course, a great number of these patients who cannot face their problems simply because some poison in the system from teeth, tonsils, sinuses, intestine, has used up so much of their mental strength or fighting power that they haven't enough left to fight the problems of life successfully.

The removal of these infections from the system cleared as many as forty per cent of the patients from a New Jersey mental hospital some years ago.

And notwithstanding the great increase in the number of mental patients, six of every ten patients are now able to return to home or business after treatment in these hospitals.

However as the main thought in medicine is prevention—smallpox, yellow fever, diphtheria, scarlet fever, diabetes, pernicious anaemia, typhoid and other ailments—so also is the prevention of mental ailments now receiving much thought.

In the home, parents try to prevent spoiling their youngster by overprotecting him. They try to make him keep himself tidy, eat sensibly, share his possessions, obey promptly. At school the teacher tries to do these same things. If the youngster is shy he is encouraged to recite and to play with others. If he wants his own way too much he is taught to "give and take." If there is any falling behind in the work, the eyes, ears and teeth are examined. Sometimes even home conditions are tactfully investigated.

This "prevention" work by parents and teachers is bound to lessen the number of adult mental patients.

FOUR ACQUITTED OF CONSPIRACY

Accused Men Discharged From Court With No Reflection on Their Activities

VANCOUVER, May 29 (?)—Ending one of the longest criminal cases in the annals of British Columbia courts, Judge J. C. McDiarmid today acquitted four men charged with conspiracy in the Delta Mayor suit in County Court. The case occupied forty days.

The defendants, T. H. Scharge, J. A. McLeod, A. J. B. Fell and W. M. Scharge, were discharged from the court "with no reflection on their person or business activities."

The charge alleged the four men had conspired to fraud settlers through misrepresentation. Several of the witnesses were residents of the Delta district, while the remainder were made up of land and poultry experts and professors.
